

Sample pages, with transcriptions,

from St Mary's Hall Chronicle 1896 and 1897

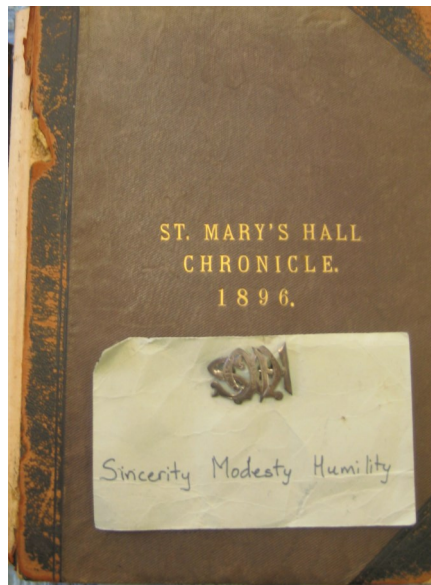

For results of Hockey Matches see The St Maryan!

The Term was otherwise uneventful

Summer Term. The Summer Term began April 29th and ended July 29th. At the very beginning of Term (May 2nd), the Scholars Miss Neilson & Miss Birrell paid a very delightful visit to Sir Charles and Lady Elliott at Wressil Lodge.

Changes within staff. In the place of Miss Churcher who left to train for missionary work in China, Miss Jones was appointed; instead of Miss Raff, Miss Jane Thomas, came as mistress of Form I.

Jubilee Day. On June 22nd we celebrated the Queen's Diamond Jubilee, by having two holidays - on the 22nd sports were held on the new tennis grounds and a tennis tournament.

For results of Hockey Matches see The St Maryan!

The Term was otherwise uneventful

Summer Term

The Summer Term began April 29th and ended July 29th.

At the very beginning of Term (May 2nd) the Scholars Miss Neilson & Miss Birrell paid a very delightful visit to Sir Charles and Lady Elliott at Wressil (?) Lodge.

Changes within staff

In the place of Miss Churcher who left to train for missionary work in China, Miss Jones was appointed; instead of Miss Raff, Miss Jane Thomas, came as mistress of Form I.

Jubilee Day

On June 22nd we celebrated the Queen's Diamond Jubilee, by having two holidays - on the 22nd sports were held on the new tennis ground - and a tennis tournament.

Miss P. authoress of "Behind the Great Wall" spoke about China and the work done by the martyred missionaries the Rev. Stewart (?) his wife, and other ladies. Both addresses were very interesting and were listened to with great attention.

Expedition: On June the 10th, a memorable expedition to Chichester was organized under the guidance of E.J. Marshall, Headmaster of the Brighton Grammar School. By his kindness, the cost of the excursion was much diminished, the SMH pupils being 21 Miss P. authoress of "Behind the Great Wall" spoke about China and the work done by the martyred missionaries the Rev. Stewart, his wife, and other ladies. Both addresses were very interesting and were listened to with great attention.

Expedition June 10th. On June the 10th, a memorable expedition to Chichester was organized under the guidance of E.J. Marshall, Headmaster of the Brighton Grammar School. By his kindness, the cost of the excursion was much diminished, the SMH pupils being June 19th. On June 10th the Rev. Edward Snowden Smith, father of Edith and Meta, died after a lingering illness. This cast quite a gloom over the school, as he had the previous year watched the sports and sat a good deal in the garden. The funeral took place on June 19th.

entered for Divinity and Literature. All were successful in obtaining passes, III class which was all they attempted to do.

On June 16th the Rev Edward Snowden Smith, father of Edith and Meta died after a lingering illness. This cast quite a gloom over the school as he had the previous year watched the sports and sat a good deal in the garden. The funeral took place on June 19th.

