The St. Mary's Hall News-Letter.

Editorial Notes.

All readers of the News-Letter will rejoice at the recovery of Miss Ghey from her recent serious illness. We now wish her health and strength for the future, so that she may feel able to carry on and give us her active and valued support for many more years, and especially that she may see us through the School Centenary in 1936.

In view of the fact that Miss Ghey was prevented so unfortunately from being present at our winter meeting and from holding the Old Girls' week-end in the summer, it is particularly hoped that every effort will be made to attend the Association meetings in 1934.

The Editor would be very glad indeed if Old Girls would help her to fill the blanks in the list of addresses, at the end of this News-Letter, and when marrying would supply her with their new address as well as notice of marriage.

Miss Ghey is still anxious for names and addresses of Old Mistresses and Girls not in S.M.H.A.

It will be of interest to all Old Girls to know that the new Head Master of Eton is a son of the late Sir Charles Elliott, and brother to the present Chairman of St. Mary's Hall.

Readers are reminded that, since the School is a member of the Students' Careers Association, any girl or her parent is entitled to write to the Secretary for advice as to the choice of a career and for information with regard to the cost of training and the addresses of training centres, free of charge. The Secretary, Miss E. R. W. Unmack, M.A., is always glad to answer enquiries from members or to talk over matters with those who may be in London and can call at 54, Russell Square, W.C.1. In the case of an interview, however, the Secretary would particularly ask all callers to make appointments beforehand.

The President's Letter.

ST. MARY'S HALL,

August, 1933.

DEAR MEMBERS OF THE S.M.H.A.,

You may perhaps partly guess with what a thankful heart I write to you; for it is a great happiness to be well again, and to have been able to go back to the Hall before term ended. I have indeed very special reasons for gratitude, for Miss Galton's work in carrying on the School in my absence was beyond praise; the Governors, most especially Lady Barrett-Lennard, stood by her nobly, and parents, mistresses, and School did the same; and I was helped and cheered by your letters, gifts, words and thoughts, with truly marvellous kindness.

Will you please accept my love and thanks, although I cannot find fit words for them? And may I wish you all a very happy Christmas and New Year? I shall be thinking of you, and sympathising with your joys and anxieties, wherever you are. Thank you, too, for many valued gifts to the Centenary Fund during this year, and for the swift response to my letter about Miss Austin's present. No Heads can rejoice more than I can (I feel proudly sure) in the constant and generous loyalty of their Old Girls. I do so look forward to meeting you in 1934, when we hope for record winter and summer gatherings.

Yours affectionately and gratefully,

F. L. GHEY.

S.M.H.A., 1933.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The 26th Annual Meeting was held on Saturday, January 28th, 1933, at Holy Trinity Parish Hall, Sloane Square. It was preceded by a short Committee Meeting at 2.45 p.m. at which the afternoon's agenda was considered and arranged, Miss Galton (as Miss Ghey's deputy) taking the chair.

There were also present:—Mrs. Macfarlane (Treasurer), Mrs. Coad, Miss H. R. Potter (Hon. Sec., London Branch), Miss W. Hopley (Hon. Sec.).

The General Meeting followed soon after 3 p.m., opening with prayer. The attendance did not come up to promise, as the intense cold and general sickness kept many from attending at the last moment.

Those who were able to attend were:—Miss Galton, Miss F. E. Smith, Miss H. Potter, Miss Webster, Miss Kingdon Ward, Miss Bolton, Miss Mace; Mrs. Coad (B. Binns), Mrs. Harwood (M. Hall), Mrs. Hakim (E. Capern), Mrs. Finch (M. Harrison), Mrs. Sheaves (I. Disney), Mrs. Willoughby (V. Phillips), Mrs. Pellew Harvey (G. V. Hallows), Mrs. Scott Malden (H. Thwaites), Mrs. Macfarlane (A. Rawson), Mrs. Rea Price (M. Creaton), Mrs. Davis (T. Bellhouse), K. Chambré, A. Garforth, M. Dallimore, E. M. Hopley, W. Hopley, M. R. Duffield-Harding, I. Lawrence, L. S. Morton, M. Paterson, G. Raynor, L. Raynor, M. Riddelsdell, R. R. Elwin, N. Standage, M. Wanstall, W. Owen Smith, G. L. Batson, M. Evans, Mrs. Biven, D. Williams, C. M. Shallard, Mrs. Spurrell, E. G. Woodgate, D. M. Cross, M. E. Oliver, H. I. Leigh-Lye, M. M. Leigh-Lye, M. E. Odell.

A shadow was cast by the news of Miss Ghey's grave illness. Miss Galton gave the meeting a message from her of affectionate greeting and regrets.

1. It was decided to take the Minutes as read, as they had already been published in the News-Letter, and this being agreed to, they were duly passed.

2. Arising from the Minutes Miss Potter drew attention to the fact that L. Coe had not been appointed joint secretary, though she was willing to help the secretary of the London Branch in any possible way.

3. Correspondence.—A letter of thanks was read from Mrs. Ottaway (B. Saunders) for the letter of good wishes (on her marriage) sent from last year's general meeting. Messages and good wishes were given from Miss Kate Birrell, Miss Forrest and others for the members assembled, also regrets for unavoidable absence.

News of the Hall.—Miss Galton, whom we were grateful to for coming at a very busy time, then gave us news of Miss Ghey and a report of recent doings at the Hall: how that (i) another house had been purchased for the School near to Hebbert House on the front (this might possibly be opened in September); (ii) a new playing field had been levelled below "Henley's Cottage" which would be lovely for hockey and tennis courts; (iii) No. 4, Hervey Terrace had been taken over and a kindergarten department added to the School; it started in a small way but is beginning to grow. (iv) Splendid new cloakrooms had been added (in close proximity to the once famous rhubarb bed) now variously called "Waterloo Station," or "Boots Café," and greatly appreciated. (v) The four North Dormitories were now changed into rooms for recreation or library; the Lower East outer was changed back once more into a dormitory. (vi) The Centenary Fund had now reached the sum of £350.

Treasurer's Report.—After much discussion as to the best way of getting members to pay up their subscriptions, Mrs. Macfarlane said she had little to comment on. There were now 36 Life Members (two newly-joined, Miss Ashwin and D. Adkins). Fifty-two subscriptions were yet unpaid; there had been 1 resignation; 31 new members in 1932, 2 in 1933; 174 had paid up their subscriptions.

Secretary's Report.—W. Hopley gave a message from Mrs. Cunnew, Editor of News-Letter, that she was sorry through illness to be unable to be present: she sent a message of best wishes for a happy gathering and love to all, asking that any changes of address and occupation, etc., given in might be sent to her; these, Mrs. Coad kindly offered to collect. The Secretary also reported an offer of a week-end at the Hall, which Miss Ghey hoped to have for the Old Girls, and urged that those present should get their former school-fellows to come and take advantage of Miss Ghey's kind offer, which would be dependent on the numbers accepting.

London Branch.—Miss Potter gave a report of the meeting in June when Mrs. Allnutt acted as hostess; she hoped it would be possible this year to gather in new members. It had been a great blow that they were no longer able to have the hospitality of the Froebel Society, and she, though willing to offer her house for the meeting, felt it was not sufficiently central. Mrs. Sheaves then kindly offered to act as hostess for the summer meeting and to welcome them in her flat at St. John's Wood, which was gratefully accepted.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

Secretary.—W. Hopley being willing was elected to serve another year.

Treasurer.—Mrs. Macfarlane accepted office for another year, when it was proposed by W. Owen Smith, seconded by E. Hopley, that L. Raynor being willing should carry on. This was carried unanimously.

Editor.—It was proposed by Mrs. Macfarlane, seconded by Mrs. Willoughby, that Mrs. Cunnew should be asked to continue as Editor. The following four members were duly elected to serve on Committee:—Mrs. Coad, Mrs. Willoughby, Mrs. Davis, M. Oliver. Miss Galton was given flowers, messages and love for Miss Ghey.

W. HOPLEY, Hon. Secretary.

School News.

SCHOOL DIARY, 1932-33.

Autumn Term.

October 8th.—Mr. Rowntree gave us one of his most interesting lectures. It was entitled, "The Childhood of Animals," and delighted us all, from the Junior House to the Sixth Form.

October 22nd.—St. Hilary celebrated their twelfth birthday. Miss Ghey came to supper with the Hilarians, who spent a most enjoyable evening, and were very glad to include Miss Miles and many other mistresses amongst their guests.

November 5th (Half Term).—On Saturday Miss Gillett arranged a hockey tournament with which to begin the half-term holiday. Then the School separated into Houses and enjoyed themselves in various ways.

November 6th.—Sunday was spent with the minimum of rest and maximum of gladness.

November 7th.—On Monday the Houses went off in char-a-bancs, and all spent a most enjoyable day. St. Hilary had the pleasure of seeing over some potteries; Babington and Hebbert went to the Portsmouth Docks and absorbed English Naval history with surprising enjoyment! Snowdon Smith also spent a very happy day. In the evening there was a most amusing dance to which all the Houses came.

November 10th.—Miss Gillett very kindly took a large party from the School to see a hockey film. It was made especially interesting by Miss Armstrong, Captain for Sussex, who spoke to us about the film and demonstrated some of the strokes.

November 12th.—Mademoiselle Colin was so good as to take the Sixth and Upper V Forms to see "Le Bourgeois Gentilhomme." We all thoroughly enjoyed it, and found it most amusing, even when we failed to understand it, which, I fear, was none too seldom!

November 29th.—Hebbert celebrated their first birthday. They acted a most amusing play, written by a member of the Upper V, and concluded a very pleasant evening with dancing. Miss Ghey and the House Mistresses joined them in their celebrations, and each member of Hebbert invited a friend to take part in them, too.

December 3rd.—Mr. Shepherd Walwyn gave us a very interesting lecture on "The Kingdom of Flowers." We were all enthralled by the descriptions of the "Man-eating Plant," and all Mr. Walwyn's slides were most beautifully clear.

December 9th.—Miss Ghey invited all the Senior School to a Christmas Party in the Elliott Hall. This year we had a delicious supper in the dining-hall, instead of the usual standing supper in the Middle Schoolroom. We all enjoyed the evening immensely. Miss Ghey has a wonderful way of making each Christmas Party the best that ever has been or ever could be. The carols with which the party concluded were really charming and much appreciated by us all.

December 10th.—Cadet entertainment (see account below).

December 11th.—Before the service on Sunday evening the music pupils gave a delightful concert, which the School and Mistresses much enjoyed.

December 15th.—The Junior House has their Christmas Party. Miss Ghey read to them and they played most exciting games. Miss Ghey had a pleasant surprise for them at the end. The "carol-singers," who had sung at the first Christmas party, came and sang to them. The Junior House felt that it was indeed an ideal conclusion to their very happy evening.

December 18th.—This Sunday we had the Carol Concert. Miss Bingham is much to be congratulated on the excellence and beauty of the singing. A record amount was raised this year for the St. Dunstan's and Civilian Blind.

Easter Term.

January 21st.—Miss Ghey invited the School to a Fancy Dress Dance to celebrate the Elliott Hall's coming-of-age. The dresses were most wonderfully original and attractive, ranging from the "Bisto" kids to highly fashionable Georgian ladies. We all spent an exceedingly happy evening. The only disappointing part of it was to wake up next morning and find we were no longer Boadicea or Ghandi, but the feminine equivalents of Tom, Dick and Harry!

January 26th.—Miss Galton told us that Miss Ghey was unwell and would be spending the next few days in bed. So few of us had ever known her ill that none of us had any idea that this was the beginning of Miss Ghey's very serious illness.

January 30th.—An epidemic of influenza had seized the School, particularly the mistresses. Miss Galton made a wonderful new time-table. Forms were joined together, and home lessons were given.

February 20th.—Miss Galton kindly arranged that the Brighthelmston Pageant, which the Vicar was getting up for the St. Mark's Market, should be rehearsed in the Elliott Hall, so that the School might have a chance of seeing it. We were all very glad of the opportunity, and much enjoyed the performance.

February 22nd.—We all went down to the Dome to the St. Mark's Market. We were very lucky to go then, as nobody else was there and we had every opportunity to buy what we wanted.

February 24th.—In the evening there was a Country Dancing Display by all the Houses, and then, afterwards, the whole School joined in.

February 25th.—Besides being the half-term Saturday, to-day was Miss Ghey's birthday. The School gave her an armchair for her flat in Hervey Terrace. Monica Luffman went in to see her and wish her many happy returns of the day from the School. We were all so sorry that she was not yet fit to do more than get up and sit in her room.

The School went out in Houses. It did not rain, but there was a good deal of mud, and some excitement in consequence. However, everyone arrived back safely, all saying that they had had a wonderful day.

This term, owing to the time lost during the epidemic, no holiday was given on Monday.

March 1st.—On Ash Wednesday the School had the pleasure of going to a Lantern Lecture on the Melanesian Mission. It was extremely interesting in spite of the disorderly behaviour of Whitehawk.

March 11th.—Miss Galton very kindly arranged for a large party from School to attend a pianoforte recital by Cortot. We keenly enjoyed the selection which he played. It included Schumann's Carnival and Preludes of Debussy.

March 14th.—Miss Rowe gave the School a delightful pianoforte recital, which we all much appreciated.

March 25th.—Mr. Nott Bower gave an intensely interesting lecture on roads. I don't think any of us realised before what enormous strides the development of roads has taken in the last fifty years.

March 29th.—Mr. Aston came and gave a lecture entitled, "The Port of London." His amusing jokes and anecdotes kept us laughing most of the time, but we succeeded in learning a great deal at the same time.

Summer Term.

May 3rd.—At Long Prayers Miss Galton told us that Miss Ghey would not be back until half-term. But we were very glad that she was making such a splendid recovery.

Miss Galton also told us that the Governors had obtained nine acres more of playing fields. It was a thrilling surprise and we were all delighted.

May 9th.—Dr. Helen Boyle came and gave us an intensely interesting talk on "Adjustment to Life." We all admired her sane and practical point of view. She did not, I think, convert us all to her way of thinking, but she certainly gave us much food for serious thought and discussion.

May 17th.—The Sixth Form went to hear Dr. Maude Royden's League of Nations speech at the Pavilion. (See League of Nations account).

June 10th—12th (Half-term Holiday).—We were fortunate after a run of wet week-ends to have our half-term fine. On Saturday work stopped at eleven o'clock, and many of us enjoyed a bathe before dinner. After dinner Miss Gillett arranged a tennis tournament which lasted till supper time (with an interval for tea, of course!). On Monday there were the usual expeditions—return-to-nature picnics in the wilds of Bognor, Slindon and Ashdown and a return to civilisation for a bathe at Brighton. By 6.30 everyone was back at School, strengthened, we hope, for the coming exams.

June 24th.—Miss Galton arranged a fête in the garden. There were refreshments, lemonade, raspberries, cherries and ices; a pets' beauty competition, a progressive tennis tournament and many other attractions. The splendid sum of £4 2s. 10d. was raised for the Centenary Fund as a surprise for Miss Ghey.

June 30th.—Miss Ghey returns. (See account).

July 8th.—This year the Clerk of the Weather was very kind to us and gave us a lovely day for the Fathers' Match. It was a most enjoyable match. We only hope the Fathers enjoyed it as much as we did. As usual, the Fathers won, Canon Sangster's bowling having lost none of its speed or cunning since last year, and Mr. Riley's being as tricky as ever.

July 9th.—There were more Confirmation candidates from the School this year than there had ever been before. The Bishop of Chichester confirmed them, and gave a very practical and inspiring address. The happiness of the day was increased by the presence of very many of the candidates' parents.

July 13th.—We heard the great news that Joyce Simmons had won a scholarship to the London School of Medicine.

MISS GHEY'S RETURN.

At Prayers on the morning of June 30th Miss Galton told us that she had some very good news for us, and said that Miss Ghey was coming back that very day, and would be with us all again about half-past five. It seemed too good to be true, for she had been away for nearly six months. We all clapped and clapped and clapped, and then cheered Miss Galton, who had carried on so splendidly during Miss Ghey's illness.

Miss Bolton, Monica Luffman and Joyce Simmons went to the station to meet her. The School lined up on the terraces and in the drive, the Cadets forming a guard of honour. Flags were hung from window to window, and the Union Jack waved a cheery welcome from the flagstaff. All looked wonderfully festive when Miss Ghey drove up the drive and was greeted by Miss Galton and the Mistresses on the front steps. Tuffy wriggled all over with joy at seeing his mistress again, and did not know what to do for excitement.

Miss Ghey spoke a few words to the School from the top terrace. She told us how glad she was to be back again and that she felt just like the flags flying over her head!

Next morning we all had a holiday to celebrate her return. The weather was very kind to us and gave us a lovely day. Many parties were taken down to bathe during the day. Cricket and tennis matches were arranged, and thirty of the Seniors went off to Tunbridge Wells to see Kent v. Sussex. They took lunch and tea with them and got back to School about seven o'clock after a very enjoyable day.

On Monday everybody went back to ordinary work. It was marvellous having Miss Ghey with us once more, and we were all very glad that she had made so splendid a recovery after her very serious illness.

THE MISTRESSES.

During this year we have had to say good-bye to a very dear friend of the School, Miss H. M. Ball, who succeeded Miss Elliott as History Mistress in 1929, and quickly showed herself an excellent teacher and Form Mistress. The distinguished successes in these four years at Cambridge—three Major Scholarships and an Exhibition—testify to the quality of Miss Ball's teaching; and her friendly presence and keen interest in School doings will be badly missed. Miss Ball has our very best thanks for all that she gave us, and very best wishes for her future work.

We have also had to part with Miss Fenning, Miss Buckton, and Miss P. Churchill, Assistant Matrons, for whose kind help our thanks are very real.

The following are welcomed to the School:—Miss Halsall (History Mistress); Miss Rowe (Assistant Music Mistress); Miss Linnell (Assistant Gymnastics and Games Mistress); Miss Athill (Babington Matron); Miss Wilson, Miss Mary Evans (an Old Girl), Miss Noyes and Miss Lucey (Assistant Matrons).

MISS AUSTIN'S RETIREMENT.

The news of Miss Austin's resignation, after her twenty-two years of faithful and often very exacting work, came as something of a bombshell to us all. It was quite impossible to imagine the School without Miss Austin, typing endless letters, rushing to or from the telephone, warding off unwanted callers, giving out stationery, ordering books, admonishing the wasteful, going to the Bank, keeping wonderful ledgers, exercising Tuffy—doing, in short, innumerable kind and essential things all day long, and at the end of term remaining in a dismal wilderness to balance the accounts and send out the reports, etc. Much of that kind of work is unsuspected and might be unappreciated; but those who know the perfection of Miss Austin's attention to detail, her systematic keeping of records, her accuracy and excellent method, know that such work is invaluable. The Governors and the Head Mistress owe a great debt of gratitude to Miss Austin for her long and devoted service, and they are happy to record their thanks, and to wish her Godspeed as she goes out into what all hope will be a very happy future.

Miss Austin was presented with a cheque and a small pension by the Governors, and with a cheque by Parents, Old Girls, and her friends at the Hall.

The appointment of Charity Girdlestone (B.A. Hons. History) to succeed Miss Austin is a happy event, and we wish her joy in her new work.

MISS AUSTIN'S LETTER.

ST. MARY'S HALL,
BRIGHTON.

9th August, 1933.

DEAR OLD GIRLS AND FRIENDS,

I have asked the Editor if she will kindly insert this letter to thank all those who have so very kindly contributed to my parting gift on leaving St. Mary's Hall. It was a great surprise to me when Miss Ghey, just before leaving for her holidays, gave me a very substantial cheque, which she said was from present girls, old girls, parents and friends with love, thanks and best wishes. I am to receive a list of the names of all contributors, which I shall be very interested to read, and in time I hope to write to everyone, but in case I am not able to do so, I hope you will all please accept my very grateful thanks in this way.

I have loved being at the Hall and working for Miss Ghey and the School for so long, but I feel that the time has now come when I should hand over my work to someone else, and I am particularly pleased that an "Old Girl" has been appointed—Miss Charity Girdlestone, who, I am sure, will give her very best to her old School.

I am leaving Brighton to return to members of my family in Birmingham, but I shall look forward very much to coming back for the Old Girls' week-end next year; also to the Centenary Celebrations in 1936, and to meeting many friends on both occasions.

I shall always have happy memories of St. Mary's Hall, its devoted Head Mistress, past and present members of the teaching and domestic staff, and many other friends I have made during the past 22 years. Once more I thank you all more than words can express.

Ever yours affectionately,

JESSIE AUSTIN.

SENIOR SCHOOL PRIZE-GIVINGS.

This year we had the great pleasure of having Miss Jebb, the Principal of Bedford College, to present the prizes. She made a most interesting speech on the place of women in the world of to-day, and the part we had to play in the future. Lady Barrett-Lennard took Colonel Elliott's place as Chairman, for he was still abroad. She spoke enthusiastically of the happiness of the School, and the progress it was making.

Miss Ghey's account of the past year showed very satisfactory work in all directions. She mentioned the successes of Mildred Riddelsdell, the most distinguished scholar of the year, who had gained exemption from the London Intermediate Examination with three distinctions and a scholarship to Bedford College. Altogether it had been a very happy year. Miss Ghey concluded her report by thanking her staff for their splendid and loyal work for the School.

Before the prizes were presented, the School provided the visitors with a delightful entertainment, consisting of singing, pianoforte solos and, for the first time, an orchestra.

As always, this Founder's Day was a very joyous one for the School. In the evening Miss Ghey read us some charming extracts from "The Life of the Founder." The day finished with prayers in the Elliott Hall, at which the whole Senior School was present.

ST. NICHOLAS HOUSE PRIZE-GIVING.

St. Nicholas House Prize-Giving was held on the 19th of July. Miss Ghey's absence was a great regret to all; but everyone was very pleased to see Col. Elliott in the chair again. The Chairman began by paying a tribute to Miss Galton for the way in which she had so admirably filled Miss Ghey's place during the last five months, and then asked us all to join with him in thankfulness for Miss Ghey's recovery.

Miss Batterbury reported a very satisfactory year in work and games. This year had seen the kindergarten extended to eleven girls and two boys, but the numbers would be decreased in the coming term unless new scholars were forthcoming. Colonel Elliott said he could assure prospective parents that the education there was excellent, and discipline under the iron hand of Richard Pigeon well maintained.

Mrs. Elliott then gave away the prizes, but left the accompanying speech to her husband. Colonel Elliott expressed his gratitude for the compliment which he felt it to be that his wife had been asked to give away the prizes, and his pleasure in being with us once again.

A very delightful entertainment then followed, including songs, three percussion bands, and two small plays. A fur-r-r-ry Teddy Bear in the first, and in the second a doleful child and two gentlemen in extreme haste, were particularly appreciated.

HENRY VENN ELLIOTT HOUSE.

With the removal of Babington House to its new quarters, 2 and 3, Chichester Terrace, the Hall becomes the home of one House—The School House—and our Chairman and other members of his family have expressed the wish that the School House henceforth should bear the Founder's name. It is therefore the Henry Venn Elliott House, and will usually be spoken of as Elliott House. The members of Snowdon Smith are very proud indeed to inherit the distinguished name of the Founder. The name Snowdon Smith will be honourably commemorated in another way.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS UNION, JUNIOR BRANCH.

Unfortunately we have had few meetings this year, partly owing to illness in the Spring term, and partly owing to the difficulties of arranging possible times for meetings.

Miss Thorn and Miss Gillett kindly took the VIth Form to hear Dr. Maude Royden speak at the Pavilion on Wednesday evening, May 17th.

On July 24th we had a meeting of the Lower V and below in the Elliott Hall. Joyce Simmons gave us an interesting speech on "Disarmament, and the Far East." We also played some games, and then showed the Juniors some posters of League activities.

We welcome Kathleen Walton as the new secretary, and we hope she will find more opportunities for meetings next year.

I should like to take this opportunity of thanking Miss Thorn and Miss Ball for their interest in the branch.

M. R. G.

THE SALE.

Again this year the Sale was a great success. The stalls displayed their usual abundance of original and attractive work. The many visitors showed how much they appreciated everything; we cannot thank them enough for their generous support. By the end of a day thoroughly enjoyed by the School and, we hope, by the visitors, nearly all the stalls had sold out, Miss Ghey's pictures and Miss Galton's sweet stall proving particularly popular.

There were many amusing side-shows in the form-rooms and sitting-rooms, including a most thrilling portrait gallery! But the Mistresses' play was undoubtedly the greatest attraction outside the Elliott Hall and Studio. After the brilliant performance of "The Bathroom Door" last year, we expected wonders from "The Man in the Bowler Hat." Nor indeed were we disappointed. Two performances were given, and at both the Middle Schoolroom was packed to overflowing. Miss Browne as a villain made us quake in our shoes, while Miss Ball and Miss Robinson kept us thoroughly amused; Miss Fenby and Miss Robinson showed us just what a hero and heroine ought to say and do.

Altogether £160 was realised, of which £55 was sent to the Governors for the Playing Field Fund; the rest went to Missions, as usual.

THE CADETS.

The Autumn term began sadly for the Cadets with the news that Miss Gillett was no longer able to carry on as captain. We could hardly imagine Cadets without her, and we were all exceedingly sorry at the thought of her having to leave us. We cannot thank her enough for all she has done for the Cadets in the last five years, both during term time and at the camps she has arranged at Belmont in Kent.

However, although there was no one at the moment who could take on the company, we all agreed to have the meetings just as usual. Miss Raspin, the Sister at the Sanatorium, very kindly promised to come when she could and help us with our ambulance work. We also got up an Entertainment to raise money for hampers for the Whitehawk District. We have to thank Miss Gillett for coming to our rescue over the properties and the staging of the entertainment, and Mr. Walker for his help with the scenery. Besides this frivolity, which we much enjoyed rehearsing for, most of the Cadets succeeded in passing their Second Class. Before we broke up we had the great pleasure of taking the Christmas hampers round to Whitehawk. We only wished we could have taken hundreds more; ten seemed to go such a little way.

Miss Sly, who had herself at one time belonged to the 2nd Brighton Cadets, acted as captain during the Easter term, and Miss Gillett very kindly came to help those taking the Ambulance badge, as Sister found she could no longer spare the time. This term we were glad to welcome eleven new recruits, bringing up our total to twenty-three. On March 10th Miss Sheriff came to enrol them, and gave us a very interesting talk.

At the beginning of the Summer term we heard that Miss Sly could come no more. We were very sorry to hear this, and we all wish to thank her for helping us so much. However, we were all overjoyed when Miss Gillett told us that she would try and take us again whenever she could. We continued our work for the Ambulance badge and Ranger Second Class. We also practised taking Guide companies, though I fear most of us are more ingenious at being country bumpkins or a blind company than at actually taking them!

A fortnight before the end of term Miss Collinson examined us for Ambulance. Eleven of us took the badge and we all passed. We only regretted that School never even produced a fractured clavicle—we no longer dream of calling it by the humble name of broken collar-bone!—for us to experiment on.

On the last Friday Miss Gillett took us for a hike near Falmer. We started off in a char-a-banc at 4.30 p.m. and arrived back about nine o'clock. We had a marvellous time, and a really marvellous supper, including scrambled eggs, sausages and mash, fried potato, a delicious sweet called "Nightingale Delight," hot cocoa and lemonade. We discovered we were all expert cooks; some of us even succeeded in cooking our sausage without it falling in the fire more than twice! We also found we were extraordinarily skilful at eating with our fingers, for the knives and forks, and plates and things, had a nasty habit of always disappearing at the critical moment!

So ended the year for the Cadets. For those who meet again in September may next year be as happy and enjoyable as this has been. M.S.L.

THE CADET ENTERTAINMENT,

DECEMBER 10TH, 1932.

The School was delighted at being invited once more to an entertainment in the Elliott Hall by the Cadets, to provide funds for Christmas hampers for Whitehawk. We were treated to three sketches:—"The Burglar and the Girl," "Atmospherics" and "The Family Group."

In "The Burglar and the Girl" we were astounded at the cunning and efficient way in which the Girl (Monica Luffman) outwitted and overcame the Burglar (Joyce Simmons), and then finally proved to be a "crook" herself and went off with the pearls.

"Atmospherics" was an entertaining exposition of the habits of many wireless sets, and although we were heartily amused, we sympathized with the unfortunate listener (Peggy Smee). Through the combined efforts of a Professor of Medicine (Nora Burden), Major Knapsack (Barbara Barton) and a Manchester Tram-driver (Joyce Simmons), she received interesting information such as this:—"All the average woman need wear is—a couple of feathers. Where these are placed is optional, but it is the custom to wear one on the forehead, and the other—just above the rear light."

"The Family Group" introduced us to the Bloggs family, assembled for a portrait of "the three generations" on "Grandma's" birthday. Margaret Stanham was excellent; a special mention must be made of Aunt Maria's (Ruth Gibbons) hat; Ede, (Stella Senior) was in a very bad temper and we felt very strongly for unfortunate "Father" (Maureen Watson), who had been bullied into his best clothes by his wife, Emily (Monica Luffman).

The whole entertainment was excellent and thoroughly deserved the good result which it achieved of £5 5s. 0d. This was able to provide ten hampers of Christmas fare for Whitehawk families. M.F.W.

ON CHRISTMAS EVE.

What, indeed, could have been more charming than the delightful Nativity play, "On Christmas Eve," which Miss Ghey and the Vith Form presented us with at the end of the Christmas term? Acted in much the same setting as the Easter play of two terms before, the naturalness and simplicity filled us with admiration, and the very real acting moved our hearts. Our sympathies went out almost without reserve to Mary Walmsley, as the unselfish elder sister, who gave up her one party in order that her sister, Kathleen Walton, might go. Her reward, we felt, was fitting, for we could imagine nothing lovelier than the advent of the Virgin, with the Shepherds and the Wise Men who came to worship, and the little Angels who offered their small gifts, too. The humility of Monica Luffman as the Virgin, and the purity of her joy, made us feel the reality of Christmas.

HOCKEY.

1ST XI CRITICISMS.

* Colours. † Mentions for good play.

- † V. COBBETT (Goal). A useful goal. She clears well, but relies too much on her stick.
- † J. SIMMONS (Right back). A steady and hard-working back. She marks and covers well, but is still inclined to use her feet.
- † M. DUKE (Left back). A very promising back. Her stick work is neat and she is persevering. With increased speed her play next season should be good.
- * M. LUFFMAN (Right half). Very good indeed. Her play reached a high standard.
- * R. PARKER (Centre half). Very good. She marks closely and untiringly and is always ready to support her forwards in the circle.
- R. LOASBY (Left half). Promising. She is neat and intercepts well. She is too slow at recovering and needs to develop a harder and quicker clearing shot.
- † M. WALMSLEY (Right wing). A fast player who worries her opponent. When she develops a centering shot she will be a valuable wing.
- N. BURDEN (Vice-Capt.). Good. Her speed increased during the season and her combination was good. She was very useful in the circle.
- * B. BARTON (Capt.). Very good indeed. Barbara very soon adapted herself to attack play, and several matches were won owing to her speed and "push" in the circle.
- K. GEE (Left inside). With more experience and control Kathleen should make a very good forward.
- †† E. GEE (Left wing). Individual performance very good indeed, but team-work poor.

1ST XI CRITICISMS.

*M. LUFFMAN (Capt.).	An excellent captain. Her bowling and fielding are very good indeed, and with regained confidence she will be a forceful bat.
*N. BURDEN (Vice-Capt.).	Batting excellent; she has good judgment and style and scores well. Her fielding is also very reliable.
*B. BARTON	A good all-round player. Her batting is forceful but her style is not good. Bowling erratic, sometimes very good.
*S. SENIOR	Wicketing variable. She gathers the ball well but often loses opportunities of stumping. Batting very much improved.
††MON. LUFFMAN	A useful member of the team. Her batting is steadily improving and her fielding is good.
†M. DUKE	Bowling promising. With more confidence and practice her batting should be good.
†J. HOBBS	Fielding very good indeed. She plays her strokes well but is lacking in confidence.
B. RILEY	Bowling good. She keeps a good length and direction. Her batting should develop well.
††G. BARTON	A promising all-round player. She will not go far with her batting until she learns to play with a straight bat.
M. BRYAN BROWN	Improving rapidly. She should be a good bat and fielder next year.
E. GEE	Fielding excellent. Batting lacks conscientious practice.

Contributions from the School.

"BEFORE HONOUR IS HUMILITY."

Although this is our School motto, perhaps many of us do not think about it as often as we might.

In our hearts we all of us desire Honour in some form or another—that is human nature. Probably we think of it as a position at the top of whatever profession we take up when we leave School, and its attendant rewards.

Our motto shows us that here at School we must strive to learn Humility—a combination of obedience, willingness, and courtesy—and with this strong foundation, go on to greater heights.

It also points out the path to that other kind of Honour, not attained in this life, but far more valuable than earthly Honour. Pride is the stumbling-block to Honour both temporal and eternal, but we have a Divine Example of Humility.

Therefore when we leave this School, let us take with us as the foundation and guide to a wider and fuller life, her motto—"Before Honour is Humility."

FORM VI.

THE ENGLISH COUNTRYSIDE.

Go whither you will in the far distant lands,
 On the snow-covered Alps, or the scorched desert sands,
 'Mid forest and jungle, on plain stretching wide,
 There is nothing to touch England's own countryside.

The Englishman dwelling from home far away,
 In Africa, China, or distant Malay,
 Will say that the East is more fair than the West,
 But he knows in his heart that he loves England best.

For in England alone that quiet beauty is found
 In the farms, village churches, and country around ;
 And in England alone will the Englishman find
 That the countryside round him brings peace to his mind.

A SONNET ON SPRING.

The budding woods are clothed in lovely hues ;
 The nesting birds their songs now sweetly sing ;
 And all is fresh and gay in softest dews.
 A bell chimes clear across the fields of Spring,
 'Tis early, few there be awake to raise,
 In joy and gladness bright as sunset glow,
 Their song, and join with me in heartfelt praise
 That dandelions and daisies bend and blow.
 The Sun now brightly shines on mountain tops
 And quickly opens gorse and heather wild
 That just before was wet by showery drops.
 The Spring, our Mother Nature's darling child,
 Is here to-day in shimmering morning haze ;
 Oh, rise and chant all her sweet welcome lays.

FORM VI.

THE SAILOR.

Oh, wouldn't you like to be a sailor,
 With a life so wild and free ?
 With a work, and a life, and a purpose
 With the majesty of the sea ?

Living a life of daring
 And courage that is so bold,
 Out on the stormy waters,
 Out in the wind so cold.

Tossing, nor minding the tossing,
 On the waves that mount so high,
 Under the angry heavens,
 Under the starless sky.

Hark how the ship is shaking,
 Creaking with all its might ;
 Oh, Ho! for the life of a sailor
 On just such a stormy night.

And oh, for the strength and courage,
 The trust and the hope so true!
 What a character must be formed
 By a sailor, I think, don't you ?

The waiting to know what'll happen
 At each roll of the surging sea ;
 The swiftness and smartness and courage
 When the end of the ship must be.

The peace, when the storm is over,
 And the heavens are clear and blue,
 And the clouds are scattered like snowflakes,
 While the sun comes into view.

The going to foreign places—
 The knowing of people there ;
 The beauty of sky and of ocean,
 The feel of the salt-sea air !

A night on the deck of the liner,
 With the silent moon on high ;
 Or a day or a dawn or a sunset
 With the sun to brighten the sky.

I'd like to be a sailor,
 With a life so wild and free ;
 Such a life of daring and courage
 Out on the marvellous sea.

IN MEMORIAM.

MRS. CHARLES GRIFFITH.

When I heard during my absence from the Hall of the death, after a short illness, of our dear old friend Mrs. Charles Griffith, my thoughts went back to a June day in 1911, when her kind face was the first to greet me at Brighton Station. She had agreed to hold a bunch of white roses as a sign for me to recognise her by, and memory still recalls the bright smile above the flowers as Mrs. Griffith stood up in her carriage to look out for me. She was a wonderful helper to her husband in all his devoted work for the Hall, and until his death in 1916 their house was constantly open to little parties of girls whom they delighted to entertain. After Mr. Griffith's death his widow allowed a room to be named after him and gave many contributions towards it; this original room was a small dormitory, now no longer in use, and another room is to receive the honour of the name Charles Griffith next term.

Mrs. Griffith retained all through her last years a very real affection for the Hall, and whenever any of us went to visit her she loved to hear all its news. We shall sadly miss a presence for whose constant friendship and kindness the present writer is deeply grateful. F.L.G.

MRS. BAKER.

In our last "News-Letter" we referred to the hundredth birthday of "Our Oldest Friend," Mrs. Baker (Marianne Cautley). Her wonderful and happy life ended on August 13th, 1933, and her daughter writes, "She loved St. Mary's Hall to the end."

ANNIE GRACE PARTRIDGE.

Grace Partridge was a girl at the Hall from 1872—1877. She was one of the first to be trained at the Deaconess Institution in Southwark, and spent practically the whole of her life as a Deaconess in the Diocese of Rochester. In spite of physical handicaps she carried out heroically her desire to consecrate every faculty to the service of God, and during her career found time to train others for the Missionary, Social, and Rescue work at which she herself so incessantly laboured. Her brilliant personality would have made her noteworthy in any circumstances, and a lifetime of application and unwearied effort made it a perfect offering in the service of God and humanity.

CAREERS FOR EDUCATED GIRLS.
