LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT.

ST. MARY'S HALL, BRIGHTON.

August, 1925.

DEAR MEMBERS OF THE ASSOCIATION,

Those of you who came to our Week-end felt, I believe, with me, how real a possession we have in the fellowship that binds us all together. Thank you again and again for all the affection and happiness and fun of those bright days. Thank you, too, to all those who came to help so splendidly with the Garden Fête, and to those many others whose letters have made me feel freshly in touch with you this summer. It has been a special pleasure to know that the Association has lately gained many new members.

This year has been eventful, and you will read in the News-Letter of many changes, and the loss of old friends, as well as of achievements and hopes. But still "the work goes on, and slacketh not"; the Council has been strengthened, the number of boarders has increased, plans for new playing-grounds are taking shape. Those at the Hall feel great joy at these signs of vitality; and another very real cause of joy has come to us lately, as we realised afresh how strong is the loyalty of the Old Girls. You are a great strength to us, and I do thank you and wish you all joy in your own lives.

Yours affectionately,

F. L. GHEY.

IN MEMORIAM.

SIR GEORGE CASSON WALKER, K.C.S.I.

OUR Chairman, Sir G. C. Walker, died at Hove during the Easter holidays of 1925, after a very severe attack of influenza. Those who read the account given in The Times of his life and work in India will have realised how arduous and distinguished a career of public work lay behind the man who was singled out by his friend, the late Sir Mackworth Young, to succeed him as Chairman of the Trustees and the Council of the Hall. Those who worked with him here realised how deeply he cared for the School at whose service he placed his administrative powers. Himself the son of a clergyman and orphaned early in life, he knew only too well the anxieties which the Hall was founded to alleviate; and his constant thought and care were for the good of the Foundation. It was a personal grief to him when the fees of Foundationers had to be raised, and he was always looking for ways in which the burdens of parents might be lightened. In all my own work with him I was constantly impressed by his high ideals, by his love of children and his goodness to them, by his patience over details and his entire unselfishness. He would come at any hour to advise or encourage; he grieved over faults in the School, and rejoiced over triumphs, with the heart of a father. We have lost a very true friend, for whose memory we have great thankfulness.

MRS. THOMPSON.

Another very old friend of the Hall was called to her rest in June, 1925. Those many generations of "the young ladies" (as she always called them) to whom Mrs. Thompson was dear, will both grieve that that kind voice is silenced, and be thankful for her release, for she had a long and painful illness. For more than thirty years she worked at the Hall, a most loyal and faithful friend to Head Mistress, Mistresses, children and maids alike. She gave to the Hall her active youth, as well as the sober judgment and ripened wisdom of her later years, and watched with quick and ready sympathy and pride the changes that came with time. She loved "the dear young ladies," and found keen joy in having them around her. Her pride in examination successes was unbounded; and nothing interested her more after her retirement than to hear news of the School. Its joys and griefs and successes and fears she made her own; and right up to the end she thought of us all, and sent loving messages as long as she was conscious. Such loyalty and faithfulness and love are gifts to thank God for.

MISS C. BECK.

Miss C. Beck was with us as Housekeeper for only a short time, and was known to comparatively few Old Girls, but while she was here she showed great devotion to the Hall, and did her best for the School in every way. She died on August 3rd, 1925, in a Nursing Home, after a painful illness borne with heroic patience. It is a great happiness to know that she loved her work and was happy in her stay with us.

F.L.G.

THE HENRY VENN ELLIOTT MEMORIAL FUND.

THE complete accounts of this Fund are not yet available, but by donations and Fête proceeds, etc., about £850 would seem to have been raised (up to August 20th, 1925). This is a very encouraging beginning.

No plans are to hand yet, but expert advice tends in the same direction as private judgment had begun to point out to the Committee of the Fund, viz., in the direction of using our own land, and levelling that, instead of buying more in the face of difficulties so prohibitive. Nothing is settled at the time of going to Press, but Old Girls will soon hear more. Meanwhile "the long pull and the strong pull" is still the watchword. General Kentish, who opened the Fête on July 23rd, was tremendously enthusiastic over our plans, and made a second visit in order to inspect all our ground and give most earnest advice that we should level all the land within our own walls and not attempt to buy. Great as the cost of this will be, it will be far less than Lord Bristol's price, plus the cost of levelling.

PLEASE go on gathering scraps and shreds for us!—for we have a stiff hill to climb yet; but the thought of what it would mean to the School to have two fields and enough tennis-courts lures us on!

ST. MARY'S HALL ASSOCIATION XVIIITH ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING. JANUARY 31ST, 1925.

THE Eighteenth Annual General Meeting of the St. Mary's Hall Association was held on Saturday, January 31st, 1925, at Holy Trinity Parish Hall, Symons Street, Sloane Square.

At 2.15 p.m. a short Committee Meeting was held and was attended by Miss Ghey (Chair), Mrs. Coad (Secretary), Mrs. Macfarlane (Treasurer) and Miss E. Sibthorpe.

The Agenda for the Annual Meeting was considered and arranged.

The Annual General Meeting was opened by Miss Ghey at 3.30 p.m. with prayer.

The following members, in addition to the Committee members already mentioned, were present:—

Miss Forrest, Miss Galton, Miss Mace, Miss F. M. Potter, Miss H. R. Potter, Miss F. E. Smith, Miss Marshall Ward, Mrs. Allnutt, W. Batson, H. Bolland, E. Colbourne, Mrs. Cowie, D. Cross, K. Darby, E. Dobson, L. Gunnery, Mrs. Harwood, A. Hazledine, H. Henderson, F. Dobson, G. Hunt, Mrs. Longsdon, D. Lilley, Mrs. Langdale Smith, C. Lloyd, R. Manning, L. Morton, J. Newton, R. Pelton, G. Raynor, M. Richardson, M. Segall, S. Searight, Mrs. I. Sheaves, W. Snowdon Smith, I. Spencer, M. and N. Standage, E. Street, M. Wall, W. Waller, M. Wanstall, Mrs. Sturdy.

The Minutes of the last meeting were read and signed.

BUSINESS ARISING THEREFROM.

Date of Annual Meetings for next four years. It was proposed by J. Batson, seconded by D. Lilley and carried nem. con.: That the Annual Meeting shall be held for the next four years on alternative dates, one on a Saturday early in January, and one on the last Saturday in the same month.

The date of the next Annual Meeting was fixed for January 9th, 1926.

Committee: Election of Officers.—It was proposed by Miss Forrest and seconded by Mrs. Langdale-Smith and carried unanimously: That the officers of the Committee, viz., Secretary, Treasurer, Secretary of the London Branch, and Editor of the News-Letter be re-elected to serve for another year.

Other Committee Members.—It was proposed by Mrs. Macfarlane and seconded by H. Bolland and carried unanimously: That the three elected last year (Mrs. Dalton, C. Eacott and E. Sibthorpe) be re-elected for another year. Miss Ghey then read letters from MISS ELLIOTT and MISS INNES containing messages of affection and greeting to all assembled at the Annual Meeting, and the Secretary was asked to write letters in reply.

Miss Ghey also gave the meeting messages from several members who had written regretting their absence.

Statement by Treasurer.—Mrs. Macfarlane drew the attention of the meeting to the Balance Sheet of the News-Letter which appeared in that paper. She reported a change in the form of reminder to members whose subscriptions were unpaid. These members were in future to receive the News Letter, in which they would see in an allotted space a \times indicating that the subscription was unpaid for one, two or three years, as the case might be. The former plan of publishing the names of such members had been dropped. Mrs. Macfarlane also gave notice that a new Membership Form had been drawn up, also new Prayer Union cards had been printed which the members of the Association could have on applying for them, without charge.

Report of Secretary of the London Branch.—In the absence, through illness, of the Secretary of the London Branch (L. Raynor), the Secretary of the Association was asked to read her report, as follows:—"There are now seventy-two names on the list (though about twenty of these having gone abroad or right away from London are for the time being not on the active list). The meeting for June, 1925, will again be held at the Froebel Society's Rooms, 4, Bloomsbury Square, and Miss Mary Ostle has kindly offered to be hostess. This will make the third meeting held there. After that, would members like to suggest a change of meeting-place, e.g., Kew? I have a balance in hand of 7s. 4d.

Place of next Annual Meeting.—It was resolved that the next Annual Meeting should be held again in the Holy Trinity Parish Hall, Symons Street, Sloane Square.

Miss Perry.—Miss Ghey recorded her great sense of loss at the resignation of Miss Perry from the staff of the School, and by way of some recognition of all Miss Perry had done for the School and the Association, it was proposed by D. Cross, seconded by S. Searight and carried unanimously: That some suitable presentation be made to Miss Perry by Old Mistresses and Old Girls. In order that the chance might be given to as many as possible to show their affection and appreciation, the meeting chose four members who were present to deal with the matter, viz., G. Hunt, S. Searight, H. Henderson and D. Lilley.

The Henry Venn Elliott Memorial Fund.—Miss Ghey reported to the meeting the scheme afoot for the purchase of new playing-fields as a fitting memorial to the late Rev. Henry Venn Elliott, the land chosen being immediately to the north of the present boundary of the School grounds and now for sale. The appeal set afoot asks for £2,300 for the purchase and levelling of the ground, and all were asked to help by taking circulars to encourage widespread and friendly interest.

Miss Ghey gave notice, much to the joy of all present, of an Old Girls' Week-end at the Hall again this year, the date being July 31st to August 4th, 1925.

LETTER FROM MISS PERRY.

MISS PERRY wishes to thank all those to whom she has been unable to write personally for the very nice present which she received a little while ago through Gretel Hunt. She appreciates very much indeed all the kind thoughts and wishes which lie behind such a gift. She would like to thank especially those who formed the Committee, as she knows the work they had to do.

S.M.H.A. (LONDON BRANCH).

THE Tenth Annual Summer Meeting of the London Branch was held on Saturday, the 27th June, 1925, by kind invitation of Mary Ostle at the Froebel Society's Rooms, 4, Bloomsbury Square, again kindly lent by the Council for the occasion.

We were delighted that Miss Ghey (President) and Mrs. Donne (née Elliott), who came on behalf of Miss Efie Elliott and to represent the Founder's family, were able to be present.

In addition to our Hostess and the above, there were present:— Mrs. Coad, Mrs. Harwood, Mrs. Wieland (E. Archer) and the Misses J. Blackledge, V. H. Friedlaender, M. Gill, J. Harwood, D. Lilley, H. Newman, C. Peebles, F. Potter, H. R. Potter, G. and L. Raynor, F. E. Smith, I. Spencer, M. Wanstall, A. S. Webster and E. Woodgate.

There was, as usual, no formal meeting, but Miss Ghey told us of the plans for the coming Garden Fête in July in aid of the Henry Venn Elliott Memorial Playing Field, and the rest of the time was devoted to “tea and talk.”

A most enjoyable afternoon was spent and a hearty vote of thanks to Mary Ostle for her very kind hospitality was proposed by Miss Ghey and carried unanimously.

It was decided that next year's meeting should again be held at 4, Bloomsbury Square, and a kind offer of hospitality was received from Mrs. Coad and gratefully accepted.

L. RAYNOR, Hon. Sec. (London Branch).

BURSARIES.

THOSE friends who during 1924-1925 sent Bursaries, or smaller sums to help towards school fees or outfit, for those Foundationers whose parents find it hard to keep them at School, are asked to accept most grateful thanks. If these kind givers could read some of the letters that come from the homes to whom the help goes, they would feel how much they have done to lighten burdens which in too many cases are cruelly heavy.

THE BIRRELL MEMORIAL FUND.

THE Birrell Memorial Fund Grant for 1925 is to be divided between Sybil Barf and Vyvyan Hallows, to help them in their Froebel and Secretarial training respectively.

School News.

CHANGES ON THE STAFF.

THE members of the Association already know what a loss came to the School last December, when Miss Perry left, after more than twenty years of keen and devoted work as teacher and dormitory mistress, and many years as Hon. Treasurer of the S.M.H. Association. A society such as a school grows inured to change, but there are some changes which bring the feeling of vital loss, and this is one of them. Miss Perry was absolutely part of the School, and without her there is a blank not to be filled. The many generations of girls who passed through her hands know at all events partly what they owe to Miss Perry's sound judgment, to her first-rate, vigilant and humorous training, to the perfection of her own handiwork, and to that detestation of the slipshod which caused the buttonless and the tousled to hurry from her sight! Miss Perry is missed daily and hourly by us all, and we can only hope that she realises a little of the affection and gratitude that follow her from the Hall.

At Easter we had to say good-bye to another valued mistress, Miss Notley, whose ill-health obliged her to go to Switzerland for some months. Miss Notley had done excellent work as Divinity and Geography Mistress, with the charge of Form IVA and of the small Hervey House. In all these departments she gave of her very best, and the School owes her most real gratitude for all that she did to lay foundations of sound work. Miss Notley hopes on her return to take a course of further study at Oxford, in which we shall all indeed wish her well.

The thanks and best wishes of the School are given to Miss Wells, Miss McClure, Miss Johnston, Mlle. Matti, Miss Drew and Miss Wilson, who have helped us in various departments of the School during the year; also to Katherine Powell, who will be greatly missed at the Hall as well as at St. Nicholas.

It has been a pleasure to welcome Miss Meyrick as Assistant Mistress in Science and Domestic Economy ; Miss Bowlby, as Pianoforte Mistress at St. Nicholas ; Miss Graham, as Housekeeper at the Hall.

St. Hilary will have the pleasure of welcoming back Mrs. Coombes next term, when she resumes her work as Matron.

The Hall looks forward to welcoming Miss Margaret Emmet, late Head of the S.P.G. School of the Epiphany, Cawnpore, who is coming as Divinity and Geography Mistress.

GIFTS TO THE HALL.

AMONG many kind gifts to the School we must record :—

An early portrait of Ruskin	...	from Mrs. Robertson
A Scoring-board for Cricket	...	„ Miss Wisdom
Sports Cups	...	„ M. Bowser and M. Reiner
Pictures	...	„ Lady Chichester
Plants and Flowers	...	„ the Rev. R. Meyer.

Also countless gifts in money and in kind at the time of the Fête are thankfully remembered.

SCHOOL WORK.

(For detailed list, see Annual Report.)

HEARTY congratulations to E. Cooper, D. Gayer, K. Palmer on their degrees ; and to D. Emmet on her first in Honour Moderations (Classics), a record for the Hall.

The Sixth Form is sending three members to College this October, S. Farnsworth, G. Austin and C. Rowland, and L. Oliver and B. Kane mean to work towards a degree by private study.

The London School Examination lists in June, 1925, showed 7 Matriculation certificates (two in Miss Forrest's Form—a record), 7 General Certificates and 10 Junior Certificates (2 in Honours). The average of the work has risen this year, and we hope to do better still in 1926.

St. Mary's Hall Diary, 1924-25.

Oct. 12th.—Mr. Hind Smith gave a lantern lecture shewing some parts of the work of Dr. Barnado's Homes. He shewed several slides of the new beautiful Home near Hertford recently opened for boys, and also of older boys and girls on their way to Canada.

Oct. 22nd.—The School had a delightful treat in the form of a recital of "Pickwick Papers" by the Rev. Runnels-Moss. Dickens' characters were brought to life for us in all their exquisite fun and humour. Mr. Runnels-Moss told us that he never had any difficulty in finding exact replicas of these in every-day life, and he thoroughly awakened and increased our interest in the works of the great novelist.

Nov. 10th.—This was the half-term whole holiday. The School went for a picnic to Pevensey. We explored the ruins of the Castle, and were very interested in the old Mint House, where we were shown a secret room, whose only entrance was by a sliding panel in the low oak-beamed ceiling. We also saw the two Churches. Later in the afternoon we drove on to Pevensey Bay where we had tea ; and later drove home through Lewes.

Nov. 22nd.—The Annual Sale for Foreign Missions was held and was combined this year with that for the U.G.S.M. The sale brought in the sum of £66 0s. 0d., of which £11 was sent to the U.G.S.M., and the rest was divided among various Missionary Societies.

Dec. 12th was Prize Day. The ceremony began with a concert by the School. This year the programme included a violin solo by Joyce Brink and the playing by Faith Colebrook of three pieces of her own composition. Canon Hicks gave away the prizes and then spoke very beautifully of the privilege of belonging to a great School.

Dec. 13th.—St. Mark's Players very kindly gave a special performance of "Everyman" for the School.

Dec. 14th.—A Carol Concert was given by the School in aid of St. Dunstan's. The collection amounted to £3 5s. 0d.

Dec. 16th.—Miss Ghey invited the School to a Christmas Party. We thoroughly enjoyed the evening, which, save for an interval for appreciating the bounty of Cook and Miss Beck, we spent in dancing. The Elliott Hall, crowded with dancers decked in paper caps, presented a gay scene, and we all felt it to be a very happy ending of the Christmas Term.

Easter Term, 1925.

Jan. 28th.—Canon Vesey gave a lantern lecture on the work of the U.G.S.M.

Feb. 7th.—Miss Sybil Cropper visited the School and sang a charming selection of folk songs. We thoroughly enjoyed the singing and Miss Cropper was given a hearty reception.

Feb. 15th.—Miss Bunn gave a most interesting lecture on the life of the boys on board the training ship, "Arethusa."

Feb. 23rd was the half-term holiday. Although the weather was wet we thoroughly enjoyed the morning spent playing games in the Elliott Hall. The afternoon was cheered by the opening of the tuck-shop, and in the evening some of the staff gave some amusing charades.

Feb. 28th.—Mr. Bradley Alexander entertained us for over an hour with marvellous conjuring. His tricks included some wonderful card-tricks, the mysterious disappearance of a watch from a tied-up handkerchief and its discovery in a shut box, and a tape, which having been burned in two, became joined together in some extraordinary way.

March 21st.—A dance in aid of the Playing Field Funds was got up by M. Barton, P. Fotheringham, V. Hallows, J. Kennelly, M. Leachman, W. Martin and H. Shackleton. A jazz band rendered the latest dance music, and refreshments at a moderate price were supplied in the Studio. As a result of an amusing and entertaining evening £2 17s. 0d. was added to the fund.

March 25th.—Miss Ramsay gave a lecture on "Greek Children." Taking an imaginary well-to-do Athenian family of the IVth or Vth Century B.C., she described first the house that they lived in, and then the daily life of each of its members, the public duties of the father, the mother's household cares, the children's work and games.

Summer Term, 1925.

May 9th.—We had a delightful concert consisting of some scenes from "Punch," produced by Miss Hitchcock. Miss E. Davies played the violin, and was enthusiastically encored by the School. Miss Miles also contributed to the success of the concert by her beautiful piano-playing. A silver collection was taken in aid of the new playing-field fund.

June 20th.—In the afternoon some of the School were taken to watch Sussex play Cambridge, and the rest went for a picnic to Amberley.

July 12th.—We had the great pleasure of a lecture on George Herbert, given by Mr. Hutchinson. Few of us knew very much about George Herbert before, but by the end of the lecture we had a clear picture of his life and, at any rate, a slight acquaintance with his works.

July 27th.—An informal Junior House Prize-giving was held. It opened with a short concert, and then Lady Barrat-Lennard gave away the prizes and afterwards congratulated the Junior House on their excellent performance at the Fête of "When we were very young."

HOW THE S.M.H.A. HELPED AT THE FÊTE.

At the Garden Fête which was held at the Hall on July 21st, 22nd and 23rd this year in aid of the Henry Venn Elliott Memorial Playing-field, the members of the S.M.H.A. were responsible for one of the eleven stalls, for "Hoop-la" and two "Fishponds." Over one hundred Old Girls contributed to the stall, which was labelled "Handicraft"; many beautiful things were sent, including all kinds of plain and fancy needlework, knitted coats, vests, bootees, etc., some very attractive articles of leatherwork, raffia baskets and mats and some paintings. Our piece de résistance, which was given a prominent place in the middle of the stall, was a most beautifully made silk petticoat, trimmed with real Breton lace.

The "Hoop-la," which was set out on the lawn beside the stall, proved to be more difficult than it looked, and was therefore quite lucrative—from our point of view! The two Fish Ponds (grown-ups had to pay 6d. for a "whale," children 3d. for "small fry") were realistically decorated in blue and green, and were presided over by two small water-nymphs, who in ordinary life are members of the Junior House. That this kind of "fishing" was popular was proved by the fact that every fish in the ponds was caught long before the end of the Fête. Several Old Girls were kindly given hospitality by Miss Ghey during the Fête, and two of them were always on duty at the stall, while others helped with the Hoop-la and Fish Ponds and at other stalls.

The exact amount which these three efforts produced has not come to hand at the time of going to Press, but it can safely be stated to have been over £40. Heartiest thanks are due to all those members of the Association who sent contributions, and who thus helped to make the Fête a success.

D. M. GAYER.

THE CLASSICAL SOCIETY.

The Classical Society has had many meetings during the past year, all of which have proved very interesting. In the Christmas Term three short dialogues, translated from Lucian, were acted to the School; B. Bardsley, F. Colebrooke being especially deserving of notice as Hermes and the Philosopher, respectively.

B. Kane read a very interesting paper on "The Origin of Greek Drama," and M. Creaton and M. Leachman on "Roman Britain."

In the Lent Term proceedings were rather held up owing to the number of casualties claimed by the sick room.

In the Summer Term Miss Irons gave a very interesting lecture on the Parthenon, illustrated by postcards.

Altogether the Society numbers about 16 members.

GUIDE REPORT, 1924-1925.

THE Christmas Term was given up almost entirely to badge work for first and second class badges especially.

In the Easter Term very little work was able to be done, owing to influenza, but the ingenuity of the Guide Captains found some new form of outdoor excursion for the survivors each week.

In the Summer Term guiding time was spent sewing, doing raffia or leather work, making sweets, etc., for the Fête, also in rehearsing the Guide Play.

GENERAL CRITICISM.

1st XI.—The 1st XI had quite a successful hockey season, having played eleven matches and won nine. The forwards showed better combination than in the previous year. The halves were not quite up to the standard of the 1st XI, but the backs and goalkeeper were very steady and reliable.

2ND XI.—The 2nd XI forwards were quick, and their shooting was better than last year. The defence was less reliable.

HOUSE MATCHES.

The House Cup was won by the West, who scored 28 goals.

FORM MATCHES.

The Form Hockey Cup was won by Upper Vb, who scored 26 goals, the VIth being second with 19 goals.

YUKI-ONNA.

Yuki-Onna, Yuki-Onna, my Lady of the Snow,
Dancing through the snow-flakes, a phantom thou dost go.
My swift and icy breath is the harbinger of death
And I chill the very life-blood's flow.

Yuki-Onna, Yuki-Onna, my lady white and fair,
The star-dust shows a gleaming on the tresses of thy hair.
Men have shuddered and turned cold, when they saw that hair
And their bones are lying stark and bare. [of old,

Yuki-Onna, Yuki-Onna, my lady fierce and grim,
Through the whistling of the snow-drifts, my eyes are growing dim.
I have kissed him into sleep, that is dreamless and is deep,
And the snow lies soft and thick upon him.

KING-CUPS.

Beautiful, golden-crested things,
Gleaming from panoply of dewy green.
Stamens of dusty gold, and buds
Most innocent and sleepy-eyed.
You smile for to-day—but to-morrow
Your bright spirit is fled—oh, whither?
Back to the chattering stream, and the rich deep meadows
Where the wind laughs and sings and is free,
And the rushes whisper one to another,
Hail, bright spirit, and farewell.

THE FAST BOWLER.

Shall I compare thee to a wild typhoon?
Thou art more loathsome and of faster rate,
Slow bowlers end their overs all too soon,
And when thou com'st I know my certain fate.

Whether the sun with burning eye doth shine,
Or whether dampness casts a dismal pall,
Yet is my wicket fated to recline
Upon the sod, outstretched by thy first ball.

For thy eternal vision never fails,
Nor dost thou lose possession of thy speed,
The shrinking batsman 'fore thy onslaught quails,
And finds his middle stump a broken reed.

Swifter than bat can smite, or eyes can see,
So swift thy ball, and it has done for me.

JUNIOR SCHOOLS.

In Kemp Town, when the sun was hot,
 Did inky hands the paper blot,
 And twenty girls were scrawling rot
 In Junior Schools, illegibly.

The mighty sea was rolling still,
 Brighton and Hove enjoyed their fill;
 But small as atoms was the skill
 Of Juniors, writing rapidly.

With fierce instructions well equipped
 Each candidate her pen she dipped,
 And on the paper white it dripped
 Ink in its black perversity.

Then racked the brain with panic riven,
 Then shook the hand to paper driven,
 And blacker than the storms of Heaven,
 Wide splodged the writing inkily.

'Tis four! The time is gone, ye brave,
 Depart the Elliott Hall and rave!
 Is there no brain, which yet can save
 You from your dreadful misery?

Few, few shall smile, when many groan
 From Kemp Town rose a ghastly moan,
 Invigilators smiled alone
 Amid that dismal company.

" GRADING."

There's a sound which is hateful to everyone's ear,
 " Beware, for the day of grading is here."
 The good and the bad and the middling, too,
 Alike hate the piano when grading's in view.

From morning till night you are chased round the School,
 You're fetched to the horrible high music stool,
 And there with your hands fast clasped on your knees,
 You stare with blank face at the horrible keys.

A scale you are asked—F major, let's say—
 You sit like a dummy and don't start to play,
 " Why don't you begin?" says a voice in your ears,
 " Please, I can't," says the victim, fast stifling her tears.

How hard have you practised a piece or sonata,
 A Bach or Beethoven, Carrol or Wagner;
 But, alas, when you hear the word, " Yes, you can start,"
 They're harder than ever you thought in your heart.

You start the first piece!—at last it is done,
 You feel as though half of the battle is won;
 But the second—oh, woe!—you get faster and faster,
 And then you break down—oh, the awful disaster!

Then, at last, the welcome word, " Yes, you may go "
 Rings in your ears, and you leave on tip-toe,
 Oh! the joy when it's over, your heart is so free,
 You feel you could jump from the earth to the sea.

THE SHEPHERD.

BY A MEMBER OF THE JUNIOR HOUSE.

Far o'er the purple hills he's standing there,
 He gazes far across the sunny land,
 The little lambs are gath'ring round his feet ;
 He strokes them gently with his old brown hand.

He sits upon a daisy-covered bank,
 Resting the little lambs upon his knee ;
 'Tis lonely there with nobody about—
 We may think it so, but, no! not he.

His dear old dog is lying by his side,
 The lark is soaring high in Heav'n above,
 'Tis written in that sheep-dog's big brown eyes,
 Faithfulness, unselfishness and love.

He is not lonely ; do you wonder why ?
 These are his friends—his dog, the birds, his sheep ;
 The countryside's his one and only home,
 The sheep-dog near his faithful watch does keep.

The shepherd shades his eyes with his brown hand,
 And sees the sun just sinking down to sleep ;
 And when he's wandering there all by himself,
 I've often watched that shepherd with his sheep.

All these contributions come from present members of the School. Contributions from members of the S.M.H.A. would be more than welcome.

News of Old Girls.

ACCOUNT OF WEEK-END.

JULY 31ST—AUGUST 4TH, 1925.

E. M. H. Hopley.

FOR the third time the members of the S.M.H.A. have to thank Miss Ghey and members of her staff for a most delightful week-end at the old School. Miss Ghey has a unique and happy gift of making us all feel at home under her wing, whether we belong to past or present ; and this annual meeting is for us all a time of rest, play, enjoyment, revival of old friendship, and companionship, besides the forming of new acquaintanceships which grow sometimes into new friendship and the recalling of past days, grave and gay.

This meeting was a very representative one, including as it did scholars from Miss Newport's days to those of the present time, some of the present VIth Form having come back to join us.

The arrivals began on Friday evening and finished on Saturday morning. Those who welcomed them included Miss Ghey and members of the Staff, Miss Austin, Miss Bolton, Miss Carter, Miss Forrest, Miss Galton, Miss Graham, Miss Howard, Miss MacMasters and Sister Farr.

Members of the S.M.H.A. included Mrs. Coad, Mrs. Sturdy, Mrs. Clements, the Misses Adkins, J. Batson, M. Batson, E. Brocklehurst, A. Baron, J. Blackledge, D. Cross, D. C. Elkington, R. Elwin, S. Farnsworth, D. Gayer, P. Girling, E. Hanham, A. Hazledine, —. Hensley, —. Hodgson, E. Holland, E. Hopley, W. Hopley, F. Innes, B. Kane, Mlle. Meatti, L. Oliver, E. Outram, B. Poynder, Miss Peebles, K. Powell, L. Raynor, W. O. Smith, J. Stacey, O. Skene, J. Sutthery, V. Wetherfield, E. Woodgate ; and Miss Waugh came up two or three times to the Hall to see us.

After 7.30 dinner in the dining hall, prayers were held by Miss Ghey in the Elliott Hall, followed by roll-call, and an impromptu dance, after which we retired to our dormitories, again to be reminded of the kind thoughtfulness of Miss Ghey, when we found our companions to be our friends or contemporaries.

On Saturday morning a cricket match was played, Past v. Present, the Present winning by 125 to 100.

During the course of the day balloons were sent into the wide world in batches, with labels attached bearing the sender's name and address; the sender of the balloon found furthest off gaining a guinea prize, the same prize being given to the finder of the said balloon. They looked very beautiful, gaily sailing away in batches, their lovely colours glowing in the brilliant sunshine.

After dinner the bright, clever and renowned spirits of the Julius Elliott dormitory, with kindred spirits from other members of the S.M.H.A., entertained the rest of the company (and to all seeming themselves, too!) with a variety entertainment which included sketches and charades, full of wit and fun and reminiscences of bygone days at the Hall.

An amusing sketch, entitled, "Queen Victoria's proposal to Prince Albert," was followed by a piece acted in dumb show, entitled, "The Admiral's Daughter."

A charade was then very cleverly and amusingly acted. The word represented being "psycho-analysis." Thus ended a very happy day.

On Sunday evening healths were drunk in lemonade. After the health of the King, Miss Ghey proposed a memorial toast to the Rev. Henry Venn Elliott, founder of the Hall, first giving a brief but very interesting sketch of the birth and growth of the thought in the founder's mind which eventually took shape in the noble buildings erected and endowed for the education of the daughters of the clergy with slender means for which so many of us thank him with grateful hearts. The toasts which followed were to past, present and future scholars of S.M.H.

Last, but by no means least, Mrs. Coad in her inimitable way rose to propose the health of Miss Ghey, saying most truly that "though our glasses were nearly empty, our hearts were very full." So ended a second happy day.

Monday was a most beautiful day and was spent chiefly in the cricket field or tennis courts. In the evening a Fancy Dress Dance was held in the Elliott Hall, everyone dressing in pairs, as for instance, Miss Ghey as "Hall," wearing a large photograph of St. Mary's Hall on the front of her dress, her partner going as a Lion—"Lyon & Hall." Some couples were very ingenious, and it needed some cleverness to find whom they represented. And so ended the last of the three happy days.
