The St. Mary's Hall News-Letter.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The perfect editor would make no mistakes in diction, spelling or punctuation, and also would detect every error of her printer and contributors. She would also have a perfect knowledge of the nomenclature of all honours and academic attainments to which members of the Association can aspire, as well as a foreknowledge of any contemplated marriage or death of all who have passed through the Hall during the century of its existence.

To be a living post-office guide and general encyclopædia, as well as to have an intuition of exactly what every correspondent "really meant" when details of occupations and other news are reported, are among the one-hundred-and-one other accomplishments of the perfect editor.

As, unfortunately, the present editor of the St. Mary's Hall 'News-Letter' is far from perfection at her job, she claims the indulgence of all readers for her own errors and shortcomings, as well as for those of some of her contributors, who appear to consider that she "ought to know" without being told.

Correspondents can render assistance by giving essential details as correctly and completely as possible.

Officers of the Association are, of course, most important people, but it is possible that they may have sisters, and when a letter is addressed to Miss "So-and-So," it is quite likely to be claimed by, or forwarded to, the wrong person. Would members therefore be good enough to address the officer concerned with her full initials (see page 2).

Members are kindly requested to notice the change of Secretary, and the changes of address of both the Treasurer and the Editor of the 'Newsletter.'

We are purposely leaving some very unwelcome news to the end of this Editorial, for it is with deep regret that we have to insert the letter from Miss GHEY on the next page, announcing her impending resignation as Headmistress of the Hall.

Miss GHEY will have completed a quarter of a century of arduous and devoted work, and during her Headship the School has passed through anxious times.

Pupils and old girls are proud to have sat at her feet in one of the leading public girls' schools in the country. Old girls who have been privileged to return to the School on visits will always retain pleasant memories of her warm welcome, and friendliness towards them.

All members of the S.M.H.A. will rejoice that Miss GHEY will see the School through the Centenary, and while regretting her departure, will wish her well-earned leisure, health and happiness.

THE PRESIDENT'S LETTER.

ST. MARY'S HALL,
BRIGHTON.

August 11th, 1935.

DEAR MEMBERS OF THE S.M.H.A.,

A somewhat blank feeling, pervading the week-end which followed the end of term, proclaimed the absence of our friends who usually gather joyfully together then ; but the blank was partly filled beforehand by the happy meeting of members of the Centenary Committee, reported on a later page.

I want to thank the large number among you who have visited the Hall, or written to me, during the past year, for the happiness and reinforcement which come to us all through your active friendship. That friendship is one of the best of all things in the life of the School, and it grows more dear as the years go on.

The record which follows is a happy one in respect of the things which matter most. The year has not been without anxiety and sadness, but it has held much joy, too.

As this 'News-Letter' goes to press, our thoughts leap forward to the next number, and to all it will have to record about the Hundredth Birthday, and the gathering from far and near of the Old Girls and other friends of the School. May this, the hundredth year, be the happiest that St. Mary's Hall has ever known.

I will wish you now (as time will probably be scarce at Christmas), the very best of Christmas and New Year wishes ; and all through the year I shall be looking forward to the happiness of renewing and strengthening our friendship, somewhere near that soon-to-be historic date, August 1st, 1936.

Yours affectionately,
F. L. GHEY.

MISS GHEY'S RESIGNATION.

ST. MARY'S HALL,
BRIGHTON.

27th September, 1935.

DEAR MEMBERS OF THE S.M.H.A.,

I want to tell you myself what I think you would rather hear from me than at second-hand, that I have decided to resign my post here at the end of next Summer Term, and the Governors have accepted my resignation. I shall be more than sorry to leave the School which is so dear to me, but I am sure that the time has come for me to leave the work in other hands.

I am not getting younger ! and the Centenary seems to be a suitable moment for doing what must be done some time.

Floreat Sanctæ Mariæ Aula !

Yours always with love,
F. L. GHEY.

S.M.H.A., 1935

The 28th Annual Meeting of the St. Mary's Hall Association was held at the Holy Trinity Parish Hall, Sloane Square, on Saturday, January 26th, 1935. At 2.15 p.m., there was a short Committee Meeting to arrange the Agenda for the afternoon. Miss GHEY was in the Chair, and there were also present :—W. HOPLEY (Secretary), L. RAYNOR (Treasurer), M. BROCKLEHURST (Secretary, London Branch), Mrs. CUNNEW (A. OLIPHANT) (Editor of 'News-Letter'), Mrs. DAVIS (T. BELLHOUSE).

After this there was an interval in which members met with friends and chatted.

Miss GHEY opened the meeting with prayer. It was then agreed the Minutes should be taken as read, as they had already appeared in the 'News-Letter.'

Treasurer's Report. L. RAYNOR reported that less money had been sent to the Hall funds (£35 18s. 6d. instead of £39 8s. 7d. the previous year). On the other hand, there were 7 life subscriptions against 4 in 1933. The total number of members was 327 (including 47 life members). There were 45 new members—21 at 2s. 6d., new rate—27 young St. Maryians just leaving the Hall—20 had lapsed in October last as three years' subscriptions were owing. There had been four resignations. 56 still owe for 1934 ; 27 still owe for 1933 and 1934 ; 19 still owe for 1932, 33 and 34. She asked that it might be noted that the financial year was from April to March ; money for last year would be sent on to Mr. GRAVES after March 31st. It had been very satisfactory to note the number of young members recently joining.

Secretary's Report. There being nothing special to report, W. HOPLEY asked Miss GHEY if she would put to the meeting the advisability of settling the date of the next Annual Meeting ; this was done, and after discussion, the resolution, 'that the date of the next Annual Meeting should be Saturday, January 25th,' was proposed by L. GUNNERY, seconded by J. SWEET, and carried nem. con.

London Branch Secretary. M. BROCKLEHURST, having asked for suggestions as to the next June meeting, Mrs. HARWOOD (M. HALL) offered to have the meeting at her house, and to act as hostess, which offer was gratefully accepted.

Editor's Report. Mrs. CUNNEW made apology for some mistakes and omissions which had appeared in the 'News-Letter' Directory.

Election of Officers. Miss GHEY suggested that the present Committee, being willing, should be re-elected, with the addition of Mrs. CAPERN in place of M. OLIVER. This was agreed to and carried nem. con. The Chairman then went on to speak of other things :—

(1) She asked the meeting to agree to make the following faithful friends of the Hall Life Members of the Association : Miss FARR, Miss HOWARD, Miss AUSTIN and Miss WOODHAMS. This was carried nem. con.

(2) The need for electing a necessary Committee for the work in connection with the Centenary celebrations in August, 1936. A book was then circulated for the names of those that might be asked to serve on this Committee. Miss GHEY then went on to speak of this great time—how the School would be in residence ; of the Thanksgiving Service ; of possible Royalty to be asked to receive gifts, purses, for the Hall ; of a new Science block ; of an enlarged Sanatorium ; the Sunday would be the great festive day ; of a Pageant and a 'News-Letter' de luxe.

The fund now stood at £654—this specially given to clear off the outstanding needs. After this came tea and a happy buzz of friendly talk.

The following were present :—Mistresses—Miss BOLTON, Miss GHEY, Miss GALTON, Miss FORREST, Miss MACE, Miss H. POTTER, Miss PERRY, Miss PEEBLES, Miss F. E. SMITH, Miss KINGDON WARD, Miss WEBSTER.

AN APOLOGY.

I had hoped to carry on the Secretaryship till the great year of the Centenary, but a call has come to join Miss BIDDLE (late Bishop's Messenger in the Diocese of Chichester), who has asked my sister and me to follow her to New Zealand, there to start work amongst the Maori children and those of white settlers in a remote part of North Island. M. BROCKLEHURST has kindly offered to fill the gap till the January meeting, when the permanent Secretary can be elected.

WINIFRED H. HOPLEY.

M. OSTLE, Miss H. POTTER, W. HOPLEY, E. LOVELOCK, R. ELWIN, F. E. SMITH, A. M. EACOTT, R. BERWICK, MARY WALL, HELEN BOSWELL, and L. L. WATSON.

The meeting this year was purely social, consisting of a delightful tea and pleasant conversation. No collection was necessary, as there is a balance in hand of 6s. 9½d.

Informal thanks were offered to Mrs. HARWOOD for so kindly acting as hostess, and affording us the opportunity of visiting her charming house and garden.

THE CENTENARY COMMITTEE.

On pages 9 and 10 of the 1934 'News-Letter,' we read the suggestion that some of the S.M.H.A. Committee might be able to visit the Hall and begin to make plans for the Centenary. The visit was made in the Autumn term, preliminary plans were sketched out, and ideas were exchanged. A list of names was prepared, of Old Girls of various dates, who might be willing to serve on the Centenary Committee, and this list was added to at the Winter meeting of the Association.

On July 6th, 1935, the Centenary Committee met for the first time at St. Mary's Hall. There were present:—Miss GHEY (in the Chair), Mrs. CAPERN, Mrs. COAD, Mrs. FRY, Miss WISDOM, Miss H. R. POTTER, Miss GALTON, Miss BOLTON, Miss L. A. COE, A. BARON, E. M. BIRKS, H. M. BOSWELL, M. BROCKLEHURST, M. E. DUKE, I. I. LAURENCE, M. S. LUFFMAN, M. E. ODELL, L. RAYNOR, J. WILBERFORCE.

The chief business done was a preliminary sketch of the Centenary proceedings, and the suggestions made by the meeting took the following shape:

Wednesday, July 29th—Presentation of Fund to some Great Personage, Garden Party, and Pageant.

Thursday, July 30th—Departure of School (Sixth Form possibly remaining).

Friday, July 31st—Arrival of Old Girls who have not been able to come earlier.

Saturday, August 1st—Commemoration of actual Hundredth Birthday, as part of the Old Girls' Week-End (which will continue till August 4th).

The date of the next meeting was fixed as October 19th, 1935, when plans will be further elaborated. Offers of hospitality will be welcomed (and are already being made).

It was suggested that Old Girls should be asked to send in suitable verses to be used as songs for the Centenary; also that Competitions (such as Word-making) might be a useful means of raising money.

All ideas will be welcome. Miss WISDOM very kindly undertook the duty of Secretary to the meeting. It may be best for the moment to address correspondence about the Centenary to me.

SCHOOL NEWS.

SCHOOL DIARY, 1934-1935.

Christmas Term.

September 30th.—Mr. PEARS gave a capital Lecture on Lighthouses, and especially the building of Beachy Head Lighthouse. There was a collection for the Missions to Seamen.

October 20th.—St. Hilary gave their thirteenth Birthday Party. We were entertained with games and dancing, and an amusing sketch about a lunatic asylum.

October 27th.—Hebbert girls each invited a friend to their third Birthday Party. We thoroughly enjoyed ourselves, playing games all over the House, and listening to topical songs.

November 3rd, 4th, 5th.—The School celebrated half-term. The Houses went on their usual expeditions all over the countryside, and we met for a dance on Saturday evening.

November 10th.—Babington gave their second Birthday Party. They acted a short play, which kept the audience in fits, and the actors too, had some difficulty in controlling themselves.

November 24th.—Sale (see Account).

November 29th.—The School had a whole holiday to celebrate Princess Marina's wedding, and we all listened to a broadcast of the service. In the afternoon most of the School went to a performance of "The Tempest."

December 3rd.—Major BAKER gave us a delightful and interesting Lecture on Trees. He showed us some marvellous pictures that he had taken himself of trees in many different parts of the world.

December 8th.—The Sixth went to a Concert given by Miss BINGHAM in Brighton. We sang two songs, and thoroughly enjoyed listening to Miss BINGHAM and other artistes.

December 12th.—Founder's Day (see Account).

December 15th.—Babington Play (see Account).

December 16th.—The Carol Concert was held as usual. There was a large audience, and everyone spent a happy afternoon.

Easter Term.

January 19th.—Mr. DONALD GRANT gave a Lecture on Austria. He talked more especially about the scenery around Vienna and the Danube. Mr. GRANT had been to us several times before, and received an enthusiastic welcome.

January 26th.—We had a very interesting Lecture on America by Mr. MACKARNES. We were especially interested in the differences he pointed out between the English and the Americans.

February 1st.—The Mistresses' Play (see Account).

February 9th.—The School was entertained by the Sherwood Players, who acted some Old English Ballads and CHAUCER'S "Nun's Priest's Tale." We were especially pleased by their performance of the "Forsaken Merman." It was a joy to welcome among them, PAT DEANE, an old Hilarian.

February 23rd, 24th, 25th.—The School celebrated half-term. It was unfortunately very bad weather, but the School, of course, managed to enjoy itself somehow or other. Monday was Miss GHEY'S birthday, and the School gave her a number of rose trees. We were all very glad to hear that she was better after her illness.

March 3rd.—The Rev. J. MONTAGUE HARRIS came and gave us a short but illuminating talk on South America, during the evening service.

March 9th.—Mr. SHEPHEARD WALWYN gave us another of his Lectures on Nature. We were all very intrigued with his problems, such as "Which came first, the chicken or the egg?"

March 24th.—The School was delighted in the afternoon by the BISHOP OF LONDON'S beautiful talk on Love. The School were all invited by the Bishop to go and stay with him when we wanted to get married! In the evening we had another interesting Lecture on India, by Mr. BUTCHER, with very beautiful slides.

March 30th.—The School had a very exciting day, or, at any rate, the first XI did. After a marvellous match against the Old Girls, which the School won, we were entertained by the St. Hilary Play. (see Account).

Summer Term.

May 11th.—Captain DAINTREE came and taught us the essentials of Life-saving. He made the School sit round in a circle, while the Sixth practised on the Elliott Hall floor. We were very much interested to hear that he had been a cadet with the King on the "Britannia."

May 18th.—The House Mistresses organised some sports on the Manor Field in aid of the Centenary Fund. They were most enjoyable, and the amount of tea that could be bought for sixpence would have staggered even Mr. WOOLWORTH.

May 25th.—The Bristol House Play (see Account).

May 29th.—The Old English Players came and gave us a performance of "Midsummer Night's Dream." The School was a most enthusiastic audience, and when Mr. HOWARD RADLEIGH offered to sign our programmes, he let himself in for a very long task.

June 5th.—Mr. DONALD GRANT spoke to us on The Situation in Europe To-day, and he was kind enough to answer the School's questions. Mr. GRANT explained the gravity of the situation, and was listened to, as always, with intense interest.

June 6th.—Saint Mark's held a Missionary Fete in the Inner Garden. Unfortunately it rained, and the Sixth spent an exciting half-hour helping to carry everything into the Elliott Hall.

June 14th, 15th, 16th.—The School had half-term. It was an unusually exciting one, for some of those who were left at School were taken to the Aldershot Tattoo. We started off in the pouring rain, but it had cleared wonderfully before we arrived there. We did not arrive back until half-past two the next morning! Saturday was spent chiefly in bed.

June 22nd.—We had an Old Girls' Cricket Match. It was great fun, but the School won; most of the Old Girls had not played since they left.

July 7th.—Twenty-five of us were confirmed by the BISHOP OF CHICHESTER, who gave us a beautiful address. It was a lovely day for everyone, and many visitors came down to the Hall.

July 11th.—Junior House Prize-Giving (see Account).

July 13th.—The Sixth entertained a party of girls from our Mission. Everyone seemed to enjoy herself immensely, and each of the guests, having made several new friends, and having had a lovely day, was given a bunch of flowers on parting.

July 15th.—For the first time the School was allowed to wear no stockings all day.

July 17th.—The Fathers' XI, captained by Mr. GEE, were beaten by the School. The XI consisted of Dr. BARKER and Messrs. GEE, CHAMPION, WILES, DAVIDSON, DAVIES, WICKHAM, KEMPE, RILEY, WILKIE and one member of the School.

July 19th.—The Cadets went for a hike on the Downs near Falmer. In spite of the rain and wind, we managed to light our fires and have a jolly good meal.

July 20th.—Hebbert invited friends down to the House for a Farewell Party. In spite of the weather spoiling their picnic, the guests had a most enjoyable time.

THE MISTRESSES.

We have had to say good-bye this year, not only to Miss BOLTON and Miss COE (see later), but also to Miss THORN, on her appointment as Mathematical Mistress at Portsmouth High School, G.P.D.S.T.; to Miss OSWELL, on her appointment as Music Mistress at Ashford High School; and to Miss TURNBULL, who at present is living at home. To all these Mistresses, who in every way gave of their best to the School, we offer our very best thanks and our wishes for their future happiness.

We welcomed in May, 1935, Miss HUNTER, A.R.C.M., and Miss M. OTTLEY, A.R.C.M. (Violin), in succession to Miss OSWELL, and in September, 1935, Miss M. GRAHAM, B.A. Hons. Lond., in succession to Miss THORN.

Mrs. DRAPER's recovery after her serious operation in the Summer Term, was a cause of great thankfulness to us all. Miss MACHIN is warmly thanked for her services as her substitute.

We were very sorry indeed to say good-bye to Miss ATTHILL, Matron of Babington since its opening, who had been a very good friend to that House, and had done her very best for its welfare in every way. Miss SAMPSON was welcomed as her successor.

The following Assistant-Matronns have left, with our thanks and best wishes : Miss EVANS, Miss LUCEY, Miss WOODHOUSE, Miss EAST. The following have been welcomed : Miss WALFORD, Miss WORTHINGTON, Miss CAUSTON.

THE CLOSING OF HEBBERT HOUSE.

During the Summer Term, the Governors decided to close Hebbert (No 4, Clarendon Terrace), as a temporary measure, there being room in the other Houses for those of its members who were not leaving in July. We all heard this news with great sorrow, for Hebbert, in its four years of happy life, had had time to establish itself very firmly and to acquire that family feeling which makes a House certain that it is the House. We hate to think of its pleasant rooms standing empty, and everyone hopes that the day for a triumphant re-opening may very soon come.

Miss MORLEY has happily gone, with as many of her House as St. Hilary could take in, to replace Miss BOLTON there, and Miss CARVER has gone with her, and also Miss CAUSTON. The rest of the Hebbertians have been drafted into the School House or into Babington, where (after the first strangeness) we all hope that they will be very happy indeed.

But to the very great sorrow of us all, Miss LUCY COE has left us. A most faithful Old Girl of Miss POTTER's time, and subsequently a Matron in the Hall, she gave up that post to go to Hebbert on its opening, and showed herself in that capacity a true and tried friend to every member of the House, sharing in all its concerns with complete devotion to her task, and swiftly identifying herself with all its best interests. The loss of Miss COE is the worst part of the closing of Hebbert, but she is going to what sounds like a very happy post at Berkhamstead School, and she knows with what thankfulness for all her beautiful work, and with what true affection, we bid her farewell.

MISS BOLTON'S RETIREMENT.

The news of Miss BOLTON's impending resignation, when it became known in the Summer Term, seemed incredible—we simply could not imagine the School without her. Miss BOLTON was part of the place : her quiet, kind, wise personality had its definite share in the life of the community, and it seemed as if it could not be true that her presence was to be withdrawn. The Governors, her many friends, her House, and her pupils heard the news with great sorrow, mitigated only when we heard that Miss BOLTON had taken a flat in Sussex Square and would be close at hand.

This was great news, for we all hope that Miss BOLTON will be constantly with us. It was entirely characteristic of this true friend of the School that she should quietly lay down her work now, just when Hebbert was closing ; such actions do not pass unnoticed.

The happy transference of Miss MORLEY to St. Hilary is a good omen for the future welfare of that House, which, losing one old friend, gains another, and so feels the blow fall more lightly. Miss BOLTON takes with her the love and thankfulness of all who have been so happy as to know her.

THE CENTENARY FUND.

This Fund stands (September 22nd, 1935) at £841. It would be far larger by this time if there were more hours in the day than there are at present, for it is very clear that there is a huge amount of goodwill among our many friends, if they can be reached and told of our plans and hopes. By Christmas the Fund should reach £1,000.

We are trying to collect enough to rebuild the Science Room, among other objects of the Fund.

The Governors allowed a Special Appeal to be sent out in the Autumn Term of 1934, which resulted in the sum of about £600, given towards the cost of the new Central Heating.

The Pencils have done well, and are still available in bundles of one dozen (2s.), or singly (2d.). PLEASE BUY !

All Old Girls are earnestly begged to gather together such stray sums as they can to enrich the total which we hope to present to some Great Personage at the Centenary.

The performance of " The Fourth Wall " four times to most enthusiastic audiences—the play produced by Miss GALTON and excellently acted by the Mistresses—brought in the great sum of £35, taken at the doors. Amateur companies—please note!

THE OFFERTORY FUND.

This Fund has enabled us to help the local hospitals ; St. Mark's Church ; the U.G.S. ; St. Dunstan's ; the Playing Fields' Association ; the Missions to Seamen ; and many other good causes.

On October 11th, 1934, BARBARA EYTON-JONES had the honour of presenting a Golden Purse, containing £1, to the Mayor at the Pavilion, for the Brighton Boys' Club.

On May 1st, 1935, JEAN STUART had the honour of presenting a Purse, containing £1, to Lady MAY ABEL SMITH, at the Grand Hotel, Brighton, for the Royal Alexandra Hospital for Sick Children.

MISSIONARY NEWS.

Our orphan, VIOLET MATTHEWS, at the Bardsley Girls' School, Katni, India, having passed the Matriculation Examination, has obtained a Teaching post as Head of an Anglo-Vernacular Middle School of 80 girls, at Vidyalaya, Sultanpur, Oudh, but hopes later to study as a Doctor.

Our best hopes and wishes go out to her for her future life.

We have now been given a new little girl to support, "MURIEL," aged six, and we are looking forward to hearing news of her.

N.B.—All friends of the School are asked to remember the value of gifts of Books, Plants, Pictures, Furniture ; also of SMALL LEGACIES, to cheer the far-distant future.

SCHOOL WORK.

We were especially pleased that C. M. HOLDSWORTH gained entrance to Newnham (History) ; she hopes to go up later. Also that B. S. HOLLAND and J. S. TYRRELL gained entrance to the Royal Holloway College, though neither of them could accept it. J. S. TYRRELL hopes to go to King's College in October, 1935.

The Higher and School Certificate results will be given in full in the Annual Report. Of the Higher candidates, nothing is known at the moment of writing ; the General candidates did very well, seven gaining Matriculation exemption, A. R. BRIGGS and A. M. CRIPPS (School House) in Honours.

The SNOWDON SMITH Divinity Prize Examiner in 1935 was the Rev. J. MONTAGUE HARRIS, who awarded the First Prize to E. M. BOTT (School House), and the Second to G. BARTON (Hebbert).

The winner of Dr. GIBBONS' Leaving Prize in July, 1935, was M. R. MENZIES (Head Girl of School House).

A CATHERINE DIGHTON Exhibition was won by J. RENDLE.

In Music, M. MILES again distinguished herself at the Brighton Musical Festival (May, 1935), carrying off the Cup for Sight Reading and being placed Second in Memory Test, and Second in Accompaniment.

M. BULLEN-SMITH passed in Grade VII in December, 1934, and E. WATSON gained Hon. Mention in Grade VI, and S. HOPKINSON in Grade IV. There were no failures.

It is a cause of great joy to the whole School that the present Head Girl (R. B. E. LOASBY) is staying on till the Centenary ; this is definitely a Good Thing.

The School endured in the Autumn Term a full inspection by the Board of Education. The experience proved very pleasant, and many new ideas were given us. One of these has already borne good fruit. Form III, of St. Nicholas House, was moved up to the Senior School at Easter, instead of in September. They did a good term's work and made a good start in Latin and Mathematics. It will be very interesting to see how they fare in their School Certificate Examination, which should be in 1940, or just possibly in 1939.

FOUNDER'S DAY, 1934.

This year, Founder's Day was as happy as ever. We had the pleasure of having Canon STREETER, Provost of The Queen's College, Oxford, as the guest of honour, to give away the prizes. We were sorry not to be able to have Colonel ELLIOTT in the chair, but Sir HUBERT BOND most kindly took his place.

Our Concert this year included several poems about birds and beasts, as well as French recitations. Also there were the usual delightful piano solos and songs. Canon STREETER gave a most interesting speech, in which he showed the value of the balance of opposites in the formation of character—such as obedience and initiative, tradition and experiment. Miss GHEY's report of the year was very encouraging, and showed progress in work, as well as an unbeaten Hockey season. Canon STREETER's address at Evensong was most beautiful.

The day ended perfectly in the Elliott Hall with Miss GHEY's reading of the Archives of the School as it was in the old days.

R.B.E.L.

ST. NICHOLAS PRIZE-GIVING.

St. Nicholas Prize-giving was held on July 11th, with Miss GHEY in the chair. Miss BATTERBURY gave an interesting report of the year's work, mentioning her regret at the loss of Miss LE GOOD, and welcoming Miss POWELL in her place.

Mr. GAUSSEN gave away the prizes and made a very attractive speech about Links and Lynxes. A charming entertainment followed. We had no idea that the Kindergarten added Dramatic Art to their other subjects, yet surely there was never a sweeter Sleeping Beauty nor a more dashing Prince Charming than those who took part in the "Masque of the Sleeping Beauty." We had some delightful songs from other Forms, and the Second Form acted a play which took us straight to the heart of Nursery Rhyme Land.

THE SALE OF WORK.

The Sale was held as usual in the Christmas Term, and a record sum was raised for Foreign and Home Missions. Unfortunately it was a wet day, but people turned up most nobly and bought a considerable number of things from the stalls. Elliott, as usual, had chiefly pottery, Babington had animals, which were most ingeniously made by the House, Bristol stall was very popular with cakes and fruit, brought by the day girls, while St. Hilary, Hebbert and St. Nicholas produced a variety of articles ranging from a cake of soap to a beautiful doll dressed in full School uniform.

The side-shows offered the same variety of amusement, and were so well patronized by both the visitors and the School that most of them had to close down before time.

Miss GHEY'S pictures and Miss GALTON'S sweets were as popular as ever; in fact, the whole Sale was a great success, and we hope the visitors enjoyed it as much as the School. The Staff, especially the House Mistresses, and those who helped with the side-shows, are to be congratulated on all their efforts during the year which produced such a magnificent result. The net total raised was £160. This wonderful sum was helped by a gift of £10 towards the stalls from Miss M. M. ANDERSON.

CADET NOTES.

We have had a full and successful year, during which many recruits have joined us. We were also pleased to welcome Miss BENNETT to assist Miss GIRDLESTONE.

After helping the recruits to pass their Tenderfoot, we devoted the greater part of the Christmas Term to getting up an entertainment. The School thoroughly enjoyed MARY WALMSLEY as Henry King, whose chief defect was chewing little bits of string. The takings were the record sum of £6 4s. 4d., with which we were able to send twelve large Christmas hampers to some of the poorest families in Whitehawk.

In November, Miss GIRDLESTONE, Miss BENNETT and the four patrol leaders went to the special Guide Service at the Parish Church, Brighton.

We were kept busy during the Spring Term trying to get our Second Class, and helping the recruits. Miss GILLETT enrolled both the Guides and the Cadets this year. During the Summer Term, as most of the spade-work was done, we tried to learn some more about the various branches of the Guide Movement. Miss GIRDLESTONE arranged Brownie and Wolf-Cub evenings for us.

We should like to thank Miss GIRDLESTONE and Miss BENNETT very much for the help they have given to the Cadets during the year.

J.S.T.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS' UNION—JUNIOR BRANCH.

We have been unfortunate this year in being able to so do little work, chiefly owing to the pressure of other events, such as the Sale and the Examinations.

On Tuesday, March 26th, a lecturer kindly came down from headquarters to speak to us about the work of the League in present-day Europe. We were much impressed by hearing of the way in which the League had kept peace in the recent dispute between Jugoslavia and Bulgaria.

A large part of the meeting was devoted to questions. The School was very much interested in such vital points as : "What would happen if Hitler were assassinated?" These problems were most satisfactorily dealt with.

I should like to take this opportunity of thanking Miss THORN for the help and encouragement which she has given to the Branch in the three years since its formation.

B.S.H.

"THE FOURTH WALL."

Once again we have to congratulate Miss GALTON and the Mistresses on the excellence of their performance and its production. The Fourth Wall was certainly, in this case, a very enthusiastic one. Miss HALSALL, as Jimmy Ludgrove, made a very human hero. We were amazed by the flashes of genius which illumined his otherwise somewhat sluggish intellect. Jimmy was not the only one to fall a prey to the charms of Susan Cunningham (Miss LINNELL), who tracked down the criminals with almost unbelievable astuteness. The villainous Edwards, Carter and Laverick, sent shivers running up and down our spines. For the next few weeks we positively shuddered when Miss THORN came round to correct our books, and we approached the Botany room in fear and trembling. Miss THOULESS, as Arthur Ludgrove, fully enlisted our sympathies as the victim of a dastardly murder. We should never have suspected him of having a lurid African past, and he died so beautifully that it is even rumoured the actors themselves were, for the moment, taken in. Miss LILLEY and Miss CARVER, as P.C. Mallett and his clever son, might well have come straight from a village police-station. Indeed, P.C. Mallett's behaviour during his son's investigation of the crime, was so realistic that the audience had great difficulty in restraining itself from telling him not to interrupt. Miss SMITH, as Major Fothergill, was typical of a retired army man, and Miss GIRDLESTONE, as the middle-aged belle, Mrs. Fulverton Fane, responded with admirable affectedness to his remarks. Jane West (Miss PICKARD) displayed all the coolness of a thoroughly blasée modern girl. Miss BENNETT, we feel, has missed her vocation—she makes such a very perfect butler. Altogether, a wonderful show.

W.M.W.

"THE LILIES OF THE FIELD."

This play, acted by the members of Bristol House on May 24th, afforded the School plenty of amusement.

When the curtain rose to reveal a faultlessly-attired clergyman, the Rev. John Head (B. HUNT), the clergy daughters among the audience prepared to enjoy themselves, and they were not disappointed. He may have been a little overgenerous and absent-minded, but these are faults which offend us little. Mrs. Head (J. BAKER) was a delightful and very long-suffering vicar's wife. We have often met her elsewhere. Bristol are fortunate in being able to provide twins when required, and Kitty and Betty Head (DORIS and MADGE MACKINTOSH) were a charming pair. When Kitty overheard an important conversation between her mother and her grandmother, Mrs. Nooke Walters (N. LISTER), something amusing was bound to happen. It did. The next day was the twins' nineteenth birthday, and when an eligible young man interested in antiques, Mr. Barnaby Haddon (B. RILEY) appeared, Betty transformed herself amazingly into "Elizabeth," a coy Victorian miss, so as to captivate the young antiquarian. She succeeded so well that she won a month's holiday in London, while Kitty had to be content with ten yards of crêpe de chine.

The scene changed to Mrs. Nooke Walters' London house, where Elizabeth reigned as queen of the revived Victorian age. The Hon. Monica Flane (B. ST. GEORGE) Lady Susan Mocker (P. BUTLER), and Bryan Roper (J. STUART), were "worshippers at her shrine." But the Head family got to hear of Elizabeth's and Barnaby's expeditions to various dances and to the British Museum, and they came to town. Kitty persuaded Bryan Roper that side whiskers did not really suit him, and since though an ass, he was a serious ass, he took her advice, cut them off for her sake, and succeeded in proposing to her.

Mrs. Nooke Walters' headache was finally cured when Barnaby Haddon revealed to his tearful fiancée that he had seen through her subterfuge all along; and he told her to remember that an antique expert knows a false antique when he sees one.

We must congratulate Miss CARTER and Miss THOULESS and the actors on a splendid performance and hope that it will not be long before we see another Bristol play.

B.S.H.

“BERKELEY SQUARE.”

“Berkeley Square” was produced by the members of St. Hilary on March 30th. The School and the visitors enjoyed it immensely, and Miss BOLTON and Miss SMITH deserve all our congratulations for the production of a play with the largest and most gorgeously clothed caste seen in the Elliott Hall for a long time. The acting could not have been better and is not mentioned last because it is least in importance.

Peter Standish (M. BUSHELL), managed to transport himself back to the life of the 18th century very successfully, and his mistakes were very few considering that even steamers were not thought of in those days. He made an extremely good hero, and we were all very unhappy when we heard that he was doomed to lead a modern, lonely life, separated from his dear Helen simply by the difficulties of time. Helen Pettigrew was played by S. TYRRELL. She made a charming and beautiful girl who was unhappy in her generation and ought to have lived in the same period as Peter. She curtsied and behaved with all the polite manners, except to her own family, necessary in those far-off days, and we were all quite as heartbroken as she at her early and tragic death. Her sister Kate (R. ISON) was also delightful and rather a tom-boy compared with her sister, and she fought with her brother Tom as sisters are still apt to do. Tom was a difficult character part, played perfectly by J. BOWSER, who showed us all the bad manners which a gentleman of those times had to possess to be a gentleman. Their mother, the Lady Anne Pettigrew (B. BURTON) was an unfeeling and generally unpleasant person, also typical of the period. This was very well acted indeed. Another outstanding character was the “Duke of Cumberland (M. BRYAN BROWN), who although no German scholar, yet managed to assume a marvellous German accent, which was so typical that we found it really difficult to understand.

R.J.S.

“NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH.”

This was the first play which Babington acted after they had moved from the Hall, and it was indeed a worthy first effort. The audience left the Hall with the pleasant feeling that they had had their full value of laughter and thrills. When Bob Bennett, the hero, accepted a bet of £500 from E. M. Ralston, Van Dusen and Dick, that he would speak nothing but the truth for twenty-four hours, we knew something exciting was bound to happen. R. LOASBY acted the part of a hard-headed business man extremely well, and H. MITCHELL and L. CHAMPION were very convincing young men, whose methods of trying to trap Bob into a lie sometimes verged on the diabolical. J. WALKER deserves congratulation for the way in which she played the part of Bob Bennett. J. BATEMAN, his fiancée, Gwen Ralston, made a very charming heroine, and we could sympathise with the exasperation she showed at Bob's odd behaviour. J. YOUNG as Mrs. Ralston, managed Ethel (W. SEATON JONES) very tactfully when Bob was forced to admit that he did not like her singing.

Ethel caused the greatest amusement of the evening by her singing, and M. BROUGHTON THOMPSON as Dr. Doran, ran her pretty close with his exclamations of "Ichabod!" The clock (J. BARKER) was one of Mr. WALKER's masterpieces, upon which a great deal of the excitement hinged. Miss GILLET and Miss HALSALL are to be congratulated on the excellence of the performance.

Centre-Half. J. BARKER. Good; she marks well and is a very sound and even player.

L. Half. †M. BUSHELL. Steadily improving; she intercepts well and often opens up the game by good clearing shots.

R. Wing. *M. WALMSLEY. Very promising; her field play is very quick and good, and her circle play shows a definite improvement.

R. Inside. J. DRURY. Sometimes good, but uneven at present; she combines well with her wing, but needs to be more effective in the circle.

Centre Forward. S. TYRRELL. She works well but is not quick or neat enough in small spaces.

L. Inside. ††K. GEE. Her good individual play is spoilt by lack of control and combination.

L. Wing. *G. BARTON. Good, especially at the end of the season; she is fast and shoots well, but is inclined to pass in too late.

A CONTRIBUTION FROM AN OLD GIRL.

"DAWN ON THE EQUATOR."

From my own personal experience of a dawn seen in Africa from a spot as exactly on the equator as it could well be, the natural phenomena of day and night and the rotation of the earth are real in a way that was never possible before.

My friends were England bound, and the bi-weekly down-country train left at 5.15 a.m. We drove the fourteen miles to the station through the star-spangled tropical night. At the tiny station lanterns bobbed here and there in the darkness, and the lights of one car were made to shine on the other during unloading, and finally the miniature squat train, with thousands of wood sparks flying, crawled away into the night. I had nearly two hours to wait before the post office in the township would be open and I could fetch the Air Mail, and there was nowhere to go and nothing to do until it grew light. The "boys" drew their scarlet blankets round them (and the two who owned cast-off "British Warmes" were proud men that morning!), and huddled in the back of the cars. At 7,000 feet, even on the equator, it can be bitterly cold until the old world turns over into the rays of the sun; and so it was that morning. In spite of two thick coats, my feet were frozen and I began walking up and down to try to bring them to life again. The station stood on high ground and I had an extensive view of the plains all round for many miles, while away in the east Mount Kenya stood silhouetted like a wood-carving deeper black against the black sky. Soon I ceased my walking to and fro, and, spellbound, I watched as slowly, mysteriously the night began to lift, black became grey, the stars one by one forsook the sky until there remained only the morning star. Around me in the distance twinkling lights began to appear at far intervals—farmers getting up by lantern light—and steadily in the east the sky behind the dark solid mass of Kenya grew lighter. Away to the west, as the veil of darkness was withdrawn, the landscape resolved itself into familiar features, a hillock here, a forest there, standing out from the grass-covered flats, and slowly from west to east the change passed, the whole land came into relief, and the plains stood naked in the light. Yet in the farthest east the land sleeps overshadowed by that mighty mountain range. Then slowly, slowly the light creeps up there, too, until the erstwhile wood-cut becomes many ranges divided by deep ravines, the sides girt with thick, impenetrable forest and the top crowned with cold white glaciers. Now the sky to the north and south of the mountain is tinged with pearly pink; above the peaks the light is yellow, growing brighter and brighter every second. The earth is slowly, oh! so slowly, rolling over into light; one is conscious of a thrill as the full realisation steals over one. It is just six o'clock and we are exactly on the equator, surely now we shall see the sun? No, not yet, although by this time it is broad daylight. Over what part of the range shall we catch the first glimpse? There, slightly to the left of the snowy peak, where the light is growing whiter and whiter? Not yet, not yet—the seconds seem an eternity. Ah! at last! A sudden dazzling brightness dims our sight, the rays of the sun shine in our faces. And then even more startling is it to watch how as the seconds go by the first glimpse of dazzling light turns to a semi-circle and the semi-circle to a complete circle, and then as we roll over we see more and more space beyond the sun. How grand, how stately, how certain ; and to think that this miracle happens daily all over the world !

What light and warmth the earth enjoys when it is basking directly in the sun's rays ; one can well understand the fears of primitive man lest the sun should fail " to rise " one morning and the earth be left for ever cold and dark, as it was but an hour ago. The Creator—the controller—of so much heat and light ? The soul of man cannot conceive Him—it feels itself against a Reality too overwhelmingly great

IN MEMORIAM.

A true friend of the School for more than half a century passed away on August 9th, 1935. Miss L. J. SNOWDON SMITH, sister of Mrs. CHARLES GRIFFITH, had several nieces at St. Mary's Hall, and was very kind to many generations of other pupils. She was the last of a large family, all of unusual gifts of character. She was greatly beloved; and those who knew her give thanks for a beautiful and kindly memory.

We have none but most beautiful remembrance of the three Old Girls who, in all their youth and lovely promise, have lately passed into the Unseen. MURIEL HOGG, aged 17, who died in Gibraltar within a term of leaving Form Upper V; BARBARA PASCOE, who died in her 21st year, after acute illness; DOROTHEA McLAUGHLIN, who died on the open hills, aged 25—they have outsoared the shadow of our night, and our love follows them.

Mrs. MARY HICKMAN (née PARRY), who passed away on April 11th, 1935, had been closely connected with Benhilton Church, Surrey, for very many years, and was a most zealous and devoted church worker in many departments.
